The following shall be the articles of association of the Company.

SHARE CAPITAL

6. ALLOTMENT

6.1 Subject to the Companies Acts, these Articles and to any relevant authority of the Company in general meeting required by the Act, the Board may offer, allot, grant options or otherwise deal with or dispose of shares or grant rights to subscribe for or convert any security into shares to such persons, at such times and on such terms as it may decide (including, without limitation, terms relating to the renunciation of any allotment). No shares may be issued at a discount.

6.2 The Board may, at any time after the allotment of any share but before any person has been entered in the Register of Members, recognise a renunciation by the allottee in favour of some other person and accord to the allottee of a share a right to effect such renunciation and/or allow the rights to be represented to be one or more Participating Securities, in each case upon the subject to such terms and conditions as the Board may think fit to impose.

6.3 Subject to the Companies Acts and without prejudice to any rights attached to any shares, any share may be issued with such rights or restrictions as the Company may by ordinary resolution determine.

6.4 Subject to the Companies Acts, any share may be issued which is, or is to be liable, to be redeemed at the option of one or both of the Company or the holder, and the Board may determine the terms, conditions and manner of redemption of any such redeemable share. Such terms and conditions shall apply to the relevant shares as if the same were set out in these Articles.

7. SHARE WARRANTS TO BEARER

7.1 Subject to the Companies Acts, the Company may, with respect to any fully paid shares, issue a warrant (a "share warrant") stating that the bearer of the warrant is entitled to the shares specified in it. The Company may provide (by coupons or otherwise) for the payment of future dividends on the shares included in a share warrant. The shares specified in the share warrant may be transferred by the delivery of the share warrant. The provisions of these Articles as to transfer and transmission of shares shall not apply to share warrants.

- 7.2 The powers referred to in Article 7.1 may be exercised by the Board, which may determine and vary the terms on which a share warrant is to be issued, including (without limitation) terms on which:
- (A) a new share warrant or coupon may be issued in the place of one damaged, defaced, worn out or lost (provided that no new share warrant shall be issued to replace one that has been lost unless the Board is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the original has been destroyed);
 - (B) the bearer of the share warrant may be entitled to receive notice of and to attend, vote and demand a poll at general meetings;
 - (C) dividends may be paid; and
 - (D) any share warrant may be surrendered and the name of the holder entered in the Register of Members in respect of the shares specified in it.
- 7.3 Subject to the terms on which a share warrant is issued and to these Articles, the bearer of a share warrant shall be deemed to be a member for all purposes. The bearer of a share warrant shall be subject to the terms in force and applicable to such share warrant, whether made before or after its issue.
- 7.4 The Company shall not be bound to recognise (even if it has notice of it) any interest in or in respect of any share represented by a share warrant other than the bearer's absolute right to the share warrant.
- 7.5 The Company shall not be responsible for any loss or damage suffered by any person by reason of the Company entering in the Register, upon the surrender of a share warrant, the name of any person who is not the true and lawful owner of that share warrant.

8. COMMISSIONS AND BROKERAGE

The Company may exercise all powers conferred by the Companies Acts of paying commissions in relation to a subscription for shares or other allotment. Subject to the Companies Acts, such commissions may be satisfied in cash or by the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or other securities or any combination of such methods. The Company may also pay such brokerage in relation to a subscription for shares as may be lawful.

9. TRUSTS NOT RECOGNISED

Except as otherwise provided by these Articles, required by law or as ordered by a Court of competent jurisdiction, no person shall be recognised by the Company as holding any share on any trust and the Company shall not be bound by or recognise any equitable, contingent, future, partial or other claim to or interest in any share except an absolute right of the holder to the share in its entirety (even if the Company has notice of such interest).

10. VARIATION OF CLASS RIGHTS

- 10.1 Subject to the Companies Acts and if the share capital of the Company is divided into shares of different classes, any of the rights attached to any class of shares (notwithstanding that the Company may be or be about to be in liquidation) may (unless the rights attached to the shares of the class otherwise provide) be varied or abrogated in any manner, either with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three quarters in nominal value of the issued shares of the class or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of shares of the class duly convened and held in accordance with Article 11.

- 10.2 Subject to the terms of issue of or rights attached to any shares, the rights or privileges attached to any class of shares shall be deemed not to be varied or abrogated by:
- (A) the creation or issue of any new shares ranking pari passu in all respects (save as to the date from which such new shares shall rank for dividend) with or subsequent to those already issued;
 - (B) the reduction of the capital paid up on such shares or by the purchase or redemption by the Company of any of its own shares in accordance with the Companies Acts and these Articles; or
 - (C) the Board resolving that a class of shares is to become or is to cease to be, or the Operator permitting such class of shares to become or to cease to be, a Participating Security.

11. CLASS MEETINGS

- 11.1 The Board may call a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of any class at any time and for any purpose as it thinks.
- 11.2 A separate meeting for the holders of a class of shares shall be convened and conducted as nearly as possible in the same way as a general meeting pursuant to these Articles, except that:
- (A) no member, other than a Director, shall be entitled to notice of it or to attend such meeting unless he is a holder of shares of that class;
 - (B) no vote may be given except in respect of a share of that class;
 - (C) the quorum at the meeting other than an adjourned meeting shall be two persons holding or representing by proxy at least one-third in nominal value of the issued shares of that class and at an adjourned meeting the quorum shall be one person holding shares of that class or his proxy; and
 - (D) a poll may be demanded by a member present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote at the meeting and on a poll each member shall have one vote for every share of that class of which he is the holder.
- 11.3 For the purpose of these Articles, a general meeting at which no holder of a share other than an Ordinary Share may, in his capacity as a member, attend or vote shall also constitute a separate general meeting of the holders of the Ordinary Shares.

12. FRACTIONS

- 12.1 If, as the result of a consolidation and division or a sub-division of shares, fractions of shares become attributable to members, the Board may on behalf of the members deal with the fractions as it thinks fit, including (without limitation) in either of the ways prescribed in this Article 12 below.

- 12.2 The Board may sell shares representing the fractions to any person (including, subject to the Companies Acts, the Company) for the best price reasonably obtainable and distribute the net proceeds of sale in due proportion amongst the persons to whom such fractions are attributable (except that if the amount due to a person is less than £5.00, the Company may retain such sum for its own benefit). To give effect to such sale the Board may:
- (A) in the case of certificated shares, authorise a person to execute an instrument of transfer of shares to the purchaser or as the purchaser may direct; and
 - (B) in the case of uncertificated shares, exercise any power conferred on it by Article 15.10 to effect a transfer of the shares.
- 12.3 The purchaser will not be bound to see to the application of the purchase monies in respect of any such sale, nor will its title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings connected with the sale or transfer. Any instrument or exercise referred to in Article 12.2 shall be effective as if it had been executed or exercised by the holder of the shares to which it relates.
- 12.4 In relation to any fractions and subject always to the Companies Acts, the Board may issue, to a member credited by way of capitalisation as fully paid the minimum number of shares required to round up his holding of shares to a number which, following a consolidation and division or a sub-division, leaves a whole number of shares (such issue being deemed to have been effected immediately before the consolidation or the sub-division, as the case may be). The amount required to pay up those shares may be capitalised as the Board thinks fit out of amounts standing to the credit of any reserve or fund of the Company (including any share premium account, capital redemption reserve and profit and loss account), whether or not available for distribution, and applied in paying up in full the appropriate number of shares. A resolution of the Board capitalising part of any such reserve or fund will have the same effect as if the capitalisation had been made with the sanction of an ordinary resolution of the Company pursuant to Article 127. In relation to the capitalisation the Board may exercise all the powers conferred on it by Article 126 without the sanction of an ordinary resolution of the Company.

CERTIFICATED SHARES

13. RIGHT TO CERTIFICATES

- 13.1 Subject to the Companies Acts, the requirements of (to the extent applicable) the AIM Rules and/or the London Stock Exchange, and these Articles, every person (except any person in respect of whom the Company is not required by the Companies Acts to complete and have ready for delivery a share certificate), upon becoming the holder of a certificated share is entitled, without charge, to one certificate for all the certificated shares of a class registered in his name or, in the case of certificated shares of more than one class being registered in his name, to a separate certificate for each class of shares, unless the terms of issue of the shares provide otherwise.
- 13.2 Where a member (other than a person in respect of whom the Company is not required by the Companies Acts to complete and have ready for delivery a share certificate) transfers part of or pays up any further sum on his shares comprised in a certificate he shall be entitled, without charge, to one certificate for the balance of certificated shares retained by him, reflecting the amounts paid up on such shares. Where a member (other than a person in respect of whom the Company is not required by the Companies Acts to complete and have ready for delivery a share certificate) receives more shares of any class, he shall be entitled, without charge, to one certificate for the extra shares of that class to the extent that the balance is to be held in certificated form.

- 13.3 The Company is not bound to issue more than one certificate for certificated shares held jointly by two or more persons. Delivery of a certificate to one joint holder shall be sufficient delivery to all joint holders.
- 13.4 A certificate shall specify the number and class and the distinguishing numbers (if any) of the shares in respect of which it is issued and the nominal value and amount paid up on the shares. It shall be issued under the Seal, which may be affixed to or printed on it, or in such other manner as the Board may approve, having regard to the terms of issue and the requirements of (to the extent applicable) the Companies Acts, the AIM Rules and/or the London Stock Exchange.
- 13.5 Every share certificate sent in accordance with these Articles will be sent at the risk of the member or other person entitled to the certificate. The Company will not be responsible for any share certificate lost or delayed in the course of delivery.

14. REPLACEMENT CERTIFICATES

- 14.1 If any certificate is worn-out, defaced, lost, stolen or destroyed, the Company may cancel it and issue a replacement certificate subject to such terms as the Board may decide as to evidence and indemnity (with or without security) and to payment of any exceptional out-of-pocket expenses of the Company in investigating such evidence and preparing such indemnity or such security but otherwise free of charge, and (if the certificate is worn-out or defaced) on delivery of the old certificate to the Company.
- 14.2 Where a member holds two or more certificates for shares of one class, the Board may at his request, on surrender of the original certificates and without charge, cancel the certificates and issue a single replacement certificate for certificated shares of that class.
- 14.3 At the request of a member, the Board may cancel a certificate and issue two or more in its place (representing certificated shares in such proportions as the member may specify), on surrender of the original certificate and on payment of such reasonable sum as the Board may decide.

UNCERTIFICATED SHARES

15. UNCERTIFICATED SHARES

- 15.1 Subject to the Companies Acts and the Uncertificated Securities Regulations, the Board may resolve that a class of shares is to become, or is to cease to be, a Participating Security.
- 15.2 Shares of a class shall not be treated as forming a separate class from other shares of the same class as a consequence of such shares being held in certificated or uncertificated form or of any provision in these Articles or the Uncertificated Securities Regulations applying only to certificated shares or to uncertificated shares.
- 15.3 Any share of a class which is a Participating Security may be changed from an uncertificated share to a certificated share and from a certificated share to an uncertificated share in accordance with the Uncertificated Securities Regulations.
- 15.4 These Articles apply to uncertificated shares of a class which is a Participating Security only to the extent that these Articles are consistent with the holding of such shares in uncertificated form, with the transfer of title to such shares by means of the Uncertificated System and with the Uncertificated Securities Regulations.

- 15.5 The Board may lay down regulations not included in these Articles which (in addition to or in substitution for any provisions in these Articles):
- (A) apply to the issue, holding or transfer of uncertificated shares;
 - (B) set out (where appropriate) the procedures for conversion and/or redemption of uncertificated shares; and/or
 - (C) the Board considers necessary or appropriate to ensure that these Articles are consistent with the Uncertificated Securities Regulations and/or the Operator's rules and practices.
- 15.6 Such regulations will apply instead of any relevant provisions in these Articles which relate to certificates and the transfer, conversion and redemption of shares or which are not consistent with the Uncertificated Securities Regulations, in all cases to the extent (if any) stated in such regulations. If the Board makes any such regulations, Article 15.4 will (for the avoidance of doubt) continue to apply when read in conjunction with those regulations.
- 15.7 Any instruction given by means of an Uncertificated System as referred to in these Articles shall be a dematerialised instruction given in accordance with the Uncertificated Securities Regulations, the facilities and requirements of the Uncertificated System and the Operator's rules and practices.
- 15.8 For any purpose under these Articles, the Company may treat a member's holding of uncertificated shares and of certificated shares of the same class as if they were separate holdings, unless the Board otherwise decides.
- 15.9 Unless the Board determines otherwise or the Uncertificated Securities Regulations require otherwise, any shares issued or created out of or in respect of any uncertificated shares shall be uncertificated shares and any shares issued or created out of or in respect of any certificated shares shall be certificated shares.
- 15.10 Where the Company is entitled under the Companies Acts, the Operator's rules and practices, these Articles or otherwise to dispose of, forfeit, enforce a lien over, transfer, re-allot or sell or otherwise procure the sale of any shares of a class which is a Participating Security which are held in uncertificated form, the Board may take such steps (subject to the Uncertificated Securities Regulations and to such rules and practices) as may be required or appropriate, by instruction by means of the Uncertificated System or otherwise, to effect such disposal, forfeiture, enforcement or sale including by (without limitation):
- (A) requesting or requiring the deletion of any computer-based entries in the Uncertificated System relating to the holding of such shares in uncertificated form;
 - (B) altering such computer-based entries so as to divest the holder of such shares of the power to transfer such shares other than to a person selected or approved by the Company for the purpose of such transfer;
 - (C) requiring any holder of such shares, by notice in writing to him, to change his holding of such uncertificated shares into certificated form within any specified period and keep it as a certificated share for as long as the Board requires;
 - (D) requiring any holder of such shares to take such steps as may be necessary to sell or transfer such shares as directed by the Company;

- (E) otherwise rectify or change the Register of Members in respect of any such shares in such manner as the Board considers appropriate (including, without limitation, by entering the name of a transferee into the Register of Members as the next holder of such shares); and/or
 - (F) appointing any person to take any steps in the name of any holder of such shares as may be required to change such shares from uncertificated form to certificated form and/or to effect the transfer of such shares (and such steps shall be effective as if they had been taken by such holder).
- 15.11 The Company shall be entitled to assume that the entries on any record of securities maintained by it in accordance with the Uncertificated Securities Regulations and regularly reconciled with the relevant Operator's register of securities are a complete and accurate reproduction of the particulars entered in the Operator's register of securities and shall accordingly not be liable in respect of any act or thing done or omitted to be done by or on behalf of the Company in reliance on such assumption. Any provision of these Articles which requires or envisages that action will be taken in reliance on information contained in the Register of Members shall be construed to permit that action to be taken in reliance on information contained in any relevant record of securities (as so maintained and reconciled).

LIEN ON SHARES

16. COMPANY'S LIEN ON SHARES NOT FULLY PAID

- 16.1 The Company has a first and paramount lien on each issued share (not being a fully paid share) registered in the name of each member (whether solely or jointly with other persons) for all amounts payable to the Company (whether actually or contingently and whether presently payable or not) in respect of such share.
- 16.2 The lien applies to all dividends on any such share, to all amounts payable by the Company in respect of such share and (if the lien is enforced and the share is sold by the Company) the proceeds of the sale of that share. It also applies notwithstanding that:
- (A) the Company may have notice of any equitable or other interest of any person in any such share; or
 - (B) any such amounts payable may be the joint debts and liabilities of both the holder of the share and one or more other persons.
- 16.3 The Board may waive any lien that has arisen or resolve that any share be exempt wholly or in part from this Article 16.

17. ENFORCEMENT OF LIEN BY SALE

- 17.1 For the purpose of enforcing the Company's lien on any shares, the Board may sell all or any of such shares in such manner as it decides if an amount in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and is not paid within fourteen (14) clear days following the giving of a notice to the holder (or any person entitled by transmission to the share) demanding payment of the amount due within such fourteen (14) clear day period and stating that if the notice is not complied with the shares may be sold.
- 17.2 To give effect to such sale the Board may:

- (A) in the case of certificated shares, authorise a person to execute an instrument of transfer of shares in the name and on behalf of the holder of, or the person entitled by transmission to, them to the purchaser or as the purchaser may direct; and
- (B) in the case of uncertificated shares, exercise any power conferred on it by Article 15.10 (uncertificated shares) to effect a transfer of the shares.

17.3 The purchaser will not be bound to see to the application of the purchase monies in respect of any such sale, nor will its title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings connected with the sale or transfer. Any instrument or exercise referred to in Article 17.2 shall be effective as if it had been executed or exercised by the holder of, or the person entitled by transmission to, the shares to which it relates.

18. APPLICATION OF SALE PROCEEDS

The net proceeds of any sale of shares subject to the Company's lien under these Articles (after payment of the costs and expenses of sale) shall be applied in or towards satisfaction of the amount then due to the Company in respect of the shares. Any balance shall be paid to the original holder of, or the person entitled (but for such sale) by transmission to, the shares on (in the case of certificated shares) surrender to the Company for cancellation of the certificate for such shares and (in all cases) subject to the Company having a lien on such balance on the same basis as applied to such shares for any amount not presently payable as existed on such shares before the sale.

CALLS

19. CALLS

19.1 Subject to the terms on which shares are allotted, the Board may make calls on the members (and any persons entitled by transmission) in respect of any amounts unpaid on their shares (whether in respect of nominal value or premium) and not payable on a date fixed by or in accordance with the allotment terms. Each such member or other person shall pay to the Company the amount called, subject to receiving at least fourteen (14) clear days' notice specifying when and where the payment is to be made, as required by such notice.

19.2 A call may be made payable by instalments. A call shall be deemed to have been made when the resolution of the Board authorising it is passed. A call may, before the Company's receipt of any amount due under it, be revoked or postponed in whole or in part as the Board may decide. A person upon whom a call is made will remain jointly and severally liable with successors in title for calls made on him notwithstanding the subsequent transfer of the shares in respect of which the call was made.

20. LIABILITY OF JOINT HOLDERS

The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of it.

21. INTEREST

If the whole of the sum payable in respect of any call is not paid by the day it becomes due and payable, the person from whom it is due shall pay all costs, charges and expenses that the Company may have incurred by reason of such non-payment, together with interest on the unpaid amount from the day it became due and payable until it is paid at the rate fixed by the terms of the allotment of the share or in the notice of the call or, if no rate is fixed, at such rate not exceeding five (5) per cent. per annum (compounded on a six monthly basis) as the Board shall determine. The Board may waive payment of such costs, charges, expenses or interest in whole or in part.

22. DIFFERENTIATION

Subject to the allotment terms, the Board may make arrangements on or before the issue of shares to differentiate between the holders of shares in the amounts and times of payment of calls on their shares.

23. PAYMENT IN ADVANCE OF CALLS

- 23.1 The Company may receive from any member (or any person entitled by transmission willing to advance the same) all or any part of the amount uncalled and unpaid on the shares held by him (or to which he is entitled). The liability of each such member or other person on the shares to which such payment relates shall be reduced by such amount. The Company may pay interest on such amount from the time of receipt until the time when such amount would, but for such advance, have become due and payable at such rate not exceeding five (5) per cent. per annum (compounded on a six monthly basis) as the Board may decide.
- 23.2 The Company may at any time repay the amount so advanced by giving at least three months' notice in writing to such member of its intention to do so, unless before the expiration of such notice the amount so advanced shall have been called up on the shares in respect of which it was advanced.
- 23.3 No sum paid up on a share in advance of a call shall entitle the holder to any portion of a dividend subsequently declared or paid in respect of any period prior to the date on which such sum would, but for such payment, become due and payable.

24. RESTRICTIONS IF CALLS UNPAID

Unless the Board decides otherwise, no member shall be entitled to receive any dividend or to be present or vote at any meeting or to exercise any right or privilege as a member until he has paid all calls due and payable on every share held by him, whether alone or jointly with any other person, together with interest and expenses (if any) to the Company.

25. SUMS DUE ON ALLOTMENT TREATED AS CALLS

Any sum payable in respect of a share on allotment or at any fixed date, whether in respect of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium or as an instalment of a call, shall be deemed to be a call. If such sum is not paid, these Articles shall apply as if it had become due and payable by virtue of a call.

FORFEITURE

26. FORFEITURE AFTER NOTICE OF UNPAID CALL

- 26.1 If a call or an instalment of a call remains unpaid after it has become due and payable, the Board may give to the person from whom it is due not less than fourteen (14) clear days' notice requiring payment of the amount unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued and any costs, charges and expenses that the Company may have incurred by reason of such non-payment. The notice shall state the place where payment is to be made and that if the notice is not complied with the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited. If the notice is not complied with, any shares in respect of which it was given may, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board. The forfeiture will include all dividends and other amounts payable in respect of the forfeited shares which have not been paid before the forfeiture.

- 26.2 The Board may accept the surrender of a share which is liable to be forfeited in accordance with these Articles. All provisions in these Articles which apply to the forfeiture of a share also apply to the surrender of a share.

27. NOTICE AFTER FORFEITURE

When a share has been forfeited, the Company shall give notice of the forfeiture to the person who was before forfeiture the holder of the share or the person entitled by transmission to the share. An entry that such notice has been given and of the fact and date of forfeiture shall be made in the Register of Members. No forfeiture will be invalidated by any omission to give such notice or make such entry.

28. CONSEQUENCES OF FORFEITURE

- 28.1 A share shall, on its forfeiture, become the property of the Company.
- 28.2 All interest in and all claims and demands against the Company in respect of a share and all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between its holder and the Company shall, on its forfeiture, be extinguished and terminate except as otherwise stated in these Articles or, in the case of past members, as provided by the Companies Acts.
- 28.3 The holder of a share (or the person entitled to it by transmission) which is forfeited shall:
- (A) on its forfeiture cease to be a member (or a person entitled) in respect of it;
 - (B) if a certificated share, surrender to the Company for cancellation the certificate for the share;
 - (C) remain liable to pay to the Company all monies payable in respect of the share at the time of forfeiture, with interest from such time of forfeiture until the time of payment, in the same manner in all respects as if the share had not been forfeited; and
 - (D) remain liable to satisfy all (if any) claims and demands which the Company might have enforced in respect of the share at the time of forfeiture without any deduction or allowance for the value of the share at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on its disposal.

29. DISPOSAL OF FORFEITED SHARE

- 29.1 Subject to the Companies Acts, a forfeited share may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Board may decide either to the person who was before the forfeiture the holder or to any other person. At any time before the disposal, the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the Board may decide. Where for the purpose of its disposal a forfeited share is to be transferred to any transferee, the Board may:
- (A) in the case of certificated shares, authorise a person to execute an instrument of transfer of shares in the name and on behalf of their holder to the purchaser or as the purchaser may direct; and
 - (B) in the case of uncertificated shares, exercise any power conferred on it by Article 15.10 (uncertificated shares) to effect a transfer of the shares.

29.2 Any instrument or exercise referred to in Article 29.1 shall be effective as if it had been executed or exercised by the holder of, or the person entitled by transmission to, the shares to which it relates. The Company may receive the consideration (if any) given for the share on its disposal.

30. PROOF OF FORFEITURE

A statutory declaration by a Director or the Secretary that a share has been forfeited on a specified date shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in it against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share. The declaration shall (subject to the execution of any necessary instrument of transfer) constitute good title to the share. The person to whom the forfeited share is transferred or sold shall not be bound to see to the application of the consideration (if any) given for it on such transfer. His title to the share will not be affected by any irregularity in, or invalidity of, the proceedings connected with the forfeiture or transfer of the share.

UNTRACED MEMBERS

31. SALE OF SHARES

31.1 Subject to the Uncertificated Securities Regulations, the Company may sell, at the best price reasonably obtainable, any share of a member, or any share to which a person is entitled by transmission, if:

(A) during the period of twelve (12) years prior to the date of the publication of the advertisements referred to in this Article 31.1 (or, if published on different dates, the earlier or earliest of them):

(1) no cheque, warrant or money order in respect of such share sent by or on behalf of the Company to the member or to the person entitled by transmission to the share, at his address in the Register of Members or other address last known to the Company has been cashed; and

(2) no cash dividend payable on the shares has been satisfied by the transfer of funds to a bank account of the member (or person entitled by transmission to the share) or by transfer of funds by means of the Uncertificated System, and the Company has received no communication (whether in writing or otherwise) in respect of such share from such member or person, provided that during such twelve (12) year period the Company has paid at least three (3) cash dividends (whether interim or final) in respect of shares of the class in question and no such dividend has been claimed by the person entitled to such share;

(B) on or after the expiry of such twelve (12) year period the Company has given notice of its intention to sell such share by advertisements in a national newspaper published in the country in which the Company's Registered Office is located and in a newspaper circulating in the area in which the address in the Register of Members or other last known address of the member or the person entitled by transmission to the share or the address for the service of notices on such member or person notified to the Company in accordance with these Articles is located;

(C) such advertisements, if not published on the same day, are published within thirty (30) days of each other;

(D) during a further period of three months following the date of publication of such advertisements (or, if published on different dates, the date on which the requirements of this Article 31.1 concerning the publication of newspaper advertisements are met) and prior to the sale the Company has not received any communication (whether in writing or otherwise) in respect of such share from the member or person entitled by transmission; and

(E) if such share is listed or dealt in on any stock exchange, the Company has first given notice in writing to that exchange (where required) of its intention to sell such share.

31.2 If during such twelve (12) year period, or during any subsequent period ending on the date when all the requirements of Article 31.1 have been met in respect of any shares, any additional shares that have been issued in respect of those held at the beginning of, or previously so issued during, any such subsequent period and all the requirements of Article 31.1 have been satisfied with regard to such additional shares, the Company may also sell the additional shares.

31.3 To give effect to a sale pursuant to Article 31.1 or Article 31.2, the Board may:

(A) in the case of certificated shares, authorise a person to execute an instrument of transfer of shares in the name and on behalf of the holder of, or the person entitled by transmission to, them to the purchaser or as the purchaser may direct; and

(B) in the case of uncertificated shares, exercise any power conferred on it by Article 15.10 (uncertificated shares) to effect a transfer of the shares.

31.4 The purchaser will not be bound to see to the application of the purchase monies in respect of any such sale, nor will its title to the shares be affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the proceedings connected with the sale or transfer. Any instrument or exercise referred to in Article 31.3 shall be effective as if it had been executed or exercised by the holder of, or the person entitled by transmission to, the shares to which it relates.

32. APPLICATION OF SALE PROCEEDS

The Company shall account to the member or other person entitled to such share for the net proceeds of such sale by carrying all monies in respect of the sale to a separate account. The Company shall be deemed to be a debtor to, and not a trustee for, such member or other person in respect of such monies. Monies carried to such separate account may either be employed in the business of the Company or invested as the Board may think fit. No interest shall be payable to such member or other person in respect of such monies and the Company shall not be required to account for any money earned on them.

TRANSFER OF SHARES

33. FORM OF TRANSFER

33.1 Subject to these Articles, a member may transfer all or any of his shares:

(A) in the case of certificated shares, by an instrument of transfer in writing in any usual form or in another form approved by the Board, which must be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and (in the case of a transfer of a share which is not fully paid) by or on behalf of the transferee; or

(B) in the case of uncertificated shares, without a written instrument in accordance with the Uncertificated Securities Regulations.

33.2 Subject to the provisions of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations, the transferor shall remain the holder of the share transferred until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members in respect of it.

34. REGISTRATION OF A CERTIFICATED SHARE TRANSFER

34.1 Subject to these Articles, the Board may, in its absolute discretion and without giving a reason, refuse to register the transfer of a certificated share or the renunciation of a renounceable letter of allotment unless it is:

- (A) in respect of a share which is fully paid;
- (B) in respect of a share on which the Company has no lien;
- (C) in respect of only one class of shares;
- (D) in favour of a single transferee or renounee or not more than four joint transferees or renounees;
- (E) duly stamped or duly certificated or otherwise shown to the satisfaction of the Board to be exempt from stamp duty (if required); and
- (F) delivered for registration to the Registered Office or such other place as the Board may decide, accompanied by the certificate for the shares to which it relates (except in the case of a transfer of a share, for which a certificate has not been issued, by a person in respect of whom the Company is not required by the Companies Acts to complete and have ready for delivery a share certificate, and except in the case of a renunciation) and any other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to prove the title to such share of the transferor or person renouncing and the due execution by him of the transfer or renunciation or, if the transfer or renunciation is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of such person to do so, provided that the Board shall not refuse to register any transfer or renunciation of any certificated shares made through a recognised investment exchange as defined in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or any other stock exchange outside the United Kingdom on which the Company's shares are normally traded in circumstances where such refusal would prevent dealings in such shares from taking place on an open and proper basis.

34.2 If the Board refuses to register a transfer or renunciation pursuant to this Article 34, it shall, within two (2) months after the date on which the transfer or renunciation was delivered to the Company, send notice of the refusal to the transferee or renounee unless they suspect that the proposed transfer or renunciation may be fraudulent. An instrument of transfer or renunciation that the Board refuses to register shall (except in the case of suspected fraud) be returned to the person delivering it. All instruments of transfer which are registered may, subject to these Articles, be retained by the Company.

35. REGISTRATION OF AN UNCERTIFICATED SHARE TRANSFER

35.1 The Board shall register a transfer of title to any uncertificated share or the renunciation or transfer of any renounceable right of allotment of a share which is a Participating Security held in uncertificated form in accordance with the Uncertificated Securities Regulations, except that the Board may refuse (subject to any relevant requirements of (to the extent applicable) the AIM Rules and/or the London Stock Exchange) to register any such transfer or renunciation which is in favour of more than four persons jointly or in any other circumstance permitted by the Uncertificated Securities Regulations.

- 35.2 In accordance with and subject to the provisions of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations, where title to an uncertificated share is transferred by means of an Uncertificated System to a person who is to hold such share in certificated form thereafter, the Company as participating issuer shall register the transfer in accordance with the relevant Operator instruction, but so that the Company may refuse to register such a transfer in any circumstance permitted by the Uncertificated Securities Regulations.
- 35.3 If the Board refuses to register any such transfer or renunciation the Company shall, within two (2) months after the date on which the instruction relating to such transfer or renunciation was received by the Company, send notice of the refusal to the transferee or renounee.

36. RENUNCIATION OF ALLOTMENTS

The Board may, at its discretion, recognise and give effect to a renunciation of the allotment of any share by the allottee in favour of some other person.

37. NO FEE ON REGISTRATION

No fee shall be charged for the registration of a transfer of a share or the renunciation of a renounceable letter of allotment or other document relating to or affecting the title to any share or for making any other entry in the Register of Members.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

38. ON DEATH

If a member dies, the survivors or survivor where he was a joint holder, or his personal representatives where he was the sole or only surviving holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to his shares. Nothing in these Articles shall release the estate of a deceased holder from any liability in respect of a share which has been held by him solely or jointly.

39. ELECTION OF PERSON ENTITLED BY TRANSMISSION

- 39.1 A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member, or of any other event giving rise to a transmission of such entitlement by operation of law (an "entitled person"), may, on such evidence as to his title being produced as the Board may require, elect either to become registered as the holder of such share or to have some person nominated by him so registered. If he elects to be registered himself, he shall give notice to the Company to that effect. If he elects to have some other person registered, he shall:

- (A) in the case of a certificated share, execute an instrument of transfer of such share to such person; and
- (B) in the case of an uncertificated share, either:
 - (1) procure that all appropriate instructions are given by means of the Uncertificated System to effect the transfer of such share to such person; or
 - (2) change the uncertificated share to certificated form and then execute an instrument of transfer of such share to such person.

- 39.2 Where the entitlement of a person to a share because of the death or bankruptcy of a member or otherwise by operation of law is proved to the satisfaction of the Board, the Board shall within sixty days after proof cause the entitlement of that person to be noted in the Register.
- 39.3 An entitled person shall be entitled to receive and may give a discharge for all dividends and other money payable in respect of the share but shall not be entitled in respect of that share to receive notices of or to attend or vote at meetings of the Company or at any separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or, except as previously stated, to any of the rights or privileges of a member until he has become a holder in respect of the share in question.
- 39.4 All the provisions of these Articles relating to the transfer of shares shall apply to the notice or instrument of transfer or instructions (as the case may be) referred to in Article 39.1 as if the notice were an instrument of transfer and as if the instrument of transfer was executed, or the instructions were given, by the member and the event giving rise to the transmission had not occurred.
- 39.5 The Board may give notice requiring a person to make the election referred to in Article 39.1. If such notice is not complied with within sixty days, the Board may withhold payment of all dividends and other amounts payable in respect of the share until notice of election has been made.
- 39.6 Subject to the provisions of this Article 39, any offer, notice, information or any other document delivered or sent to the address of any shareholder in pursuance of these Articles shall, notwithstanding that such shareholder be then dead or bankrupt or that any other event giving rise to a transmission of such shareholder's entitlement by operation of law has occurred, and whether or not the Company has notice of his death or bankruptcy or other event giving rise to a transmission of such shareholder's entitlement by operation of law, be deemed to have been duly delivered or sent in respect of any share registered in the name of such shareholder as sole or first-named joint holder.

40. RIGHTS ON TRANSMISSION

A person becoming entitled by transmission to a share shall have the rights to which he would be entitled if he were the holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as its holder, be entitled in respect of it to receive notice of, or to attend or vote at, any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares.

GENERAL MEETINGS

- 41.1 A general meeting shall be held in every year as the annual general meeting of the Company (and specified as such in the notice convening the meeting), at such time (within a period of not more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding annual general meeting) and place as may be determined by the Board. The general meetings referred to in this Article 41.1 shall be called annual general meetings.
- 41.2 Without prejudice to Article 41.1 and the requirement under the Companies Acts to convene an annual general meeting in each year, the Board may convene a general meeting whenever it thinks fit. A general meeting shall also be convened on such requisition, or in default may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by sections 303 to 305 of the Act and no business shall be transacted at such meeting except that stated by the requisition or proposed by the Board. If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient Directors to call a general meeting, any Director may convene a general meeting.

42. NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- 42.1 An annual general meeting shall be convened by not less than twenty-one (21) clear days' notice.
- 42.2 All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be convened by not less than fourteen (14) clear days' notice, even where a special resolution is to be considered.
- 42.3 Subject to the Companies Acts and notwithstanding that it is convened by shorter notice than that specified in Article 42.1 and Article 42.2, a general meeting shall be deemed to have been duly convened if it is so agreed:
- (A) in the case of an annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote at the meeting; and
 - (B) in the case of any other general meeting, by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 95 per cent. in nominal value of the shares giving that right.
- 42.4 The notice of meeting shall specify:
- (A) if applicable, that the general meeting is to be the annual general meeting;
 - (B) the place, the day and the time of the meeting;
 - (C) subject to the requirements of (to the extent applicable) the AIM Rules and/or the London Stock Exchange, the general nature of the business to be transacted;
 - (D) if the meeting is convened to consider a special resolution, the intention to propose the resolution as such;
 - (E) with reasonable prominence, that a member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and, on a poll, vote instead of him and that a proxy need not also be a member;
 - (F) the procedures with which members must comply in order to be able to attend and vote at the meeting (including the date by which they must comply)
 - (G) details of any forms to be used for the appointment of a proxy;
 - (H) a time by which a person must be entered on the Register of Members in order for such person to have the right to attend or vote at the meeting (subject to the Uncertificated Securities Regulations if the Company is then a participating issuer for the purpose of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations); and
 - (I) at the Board's discretion, include a statement for the procedure for members to vote in advance or by electronic means (including the date by which it must be done and details of any forms to be used).
- 42.5 The notice of meeting shall:
- (A) be given to the members (other than a member who, under these Articles or any restrictions imposed on any shares, is not entitled to receive notice from the Company), to the Directors and to the Auditors; and

- (B) (to the extent applicable) comply with all relevant obligations under the AIM Rules, including but not limited to being made available on the Company's website.
- 42.6 Where the Company has given an electronic address in any notice of meeting, any document or information relating to proceedings at the meeting may be sent by electronic means to that address, subject to any conditions or limitations specified in the relevant notice of meeting.
- 42.7 The Board may determine that the members entitled to receive notice of a meeting are those persons entered on the Register of Members at a time determined by the Board (subject to the Uncertificated Securities Regulations if the Company is then a participating issuer for the purpose of the Uncertificated Securities Regulations) which shall not be more than 48 hours before the time fixed for the meeting excluding any part of any day that is not a working day. Changes to entries on the register after the time so specified in the notice shall be disregarded in determining the rights of any person to so attend or vote.
- 42.8 The accidental omission to send or give a notice of meeting or, in cases where it is intended that it be sent out or given with the notice, an instrument of proxy or any other document to, the failure to give notice due to circumstances beyond the Company's control, or the non-receipt of any such item by, any person entitled to receive any such item shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting. In this Article references to notice or any other document includes communications in electronic form and documents made available on a website in accordance with the Companies Acts and these Articles.
- 42.9 If the Board, in its absolute discretion, considers that it is impractical or unreasonable for any reason to hold a general meeting at the time or place specified in the notice calling the general meeting, it may move and/or postpone the general meeting to another time and/or place. When a meeting is so moved and/or postponed, notice of the time and place of the moved and/or postponed meeting shall (if practical) be placed in at least two national newspapers in the United Kingdom. Notice of the business to be transacted at such moved and/or postponed meeting is not required. The Board must take reasonable steps to ensure that members trying to attend the general meeting at the original time and/or place are informed of the new arrangements for the general meeting. Proxy forms can be delivered as specified in Article 57 until 48 hours before the rearranged meeting. Any postponed and/or moved meeting may also be postponed and/or moved under this Article 42.

43. QUORUM FOR GENERAL MEETING

No business shall be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. For all purposes the quorum shall be not less than two qualifying persons, unless (i) each is a qualifying person only because he is authorised under section 323 of the Act to act as the representative of a corporation in relation to the meeting, and they are representatives of the same corporation, or (ii) each is a qualifying person only because he is appointed as proxy of a member in relation to the meeting, and they are proxies of the same member. For the purposes of this Article 43, a "qualifying person" means (i) an individual who is a member of the Company, (ii) a person authorised under section 323 of the Act to act as the representative of a corporation in relation to the meeting, or (iii) a person appointed as a proxy of a member in relation to the meeting. The absence of a quorum will not prevent the appointment of a chairman of the meeting. Such appointment shall not be treated as being part of the business of the meeting.

44. PROCEDURE IF QUORUM NOT PRESENT

- 44.1 If within five minutes (or such longer time not exceeding one hour as the chairman of the meeting may decide to wait) after the time appointed for the holding of the meeting a quorum is not present, or if during the meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting:

- (A) if convened on the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; and
- (B) in any other case shall stand adjourned for no less than ten (10) clear days to such other day and at such other time and place as the chairman (or, in default, the Board) may decide.

44.2 If at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within five minutes (or such longer time not exceeding one hour as the chairman of the meeting may decide to wait) after the time appointed for holding it, one person entitled to vote on the business to be transacted, being a qualifying person, shall be a quorum.

45. CHAIRMAN OF GENERAL MEETING

45.1 The chairman (if any) of the Board or, in his absence, the vice chairman (if any) shall preside as chairman at a general meeting. If there is no chairman or vice chairman, or if at a meeting neither is present within five minutes after the time fixed for the start of the meeting, or neither is willing to act, the Directors present shall select one of their number to be chairman of the meeting. If only one Director is present and willing to act, he shall be chairman of the meeting. In default, the members present in person or proxy and entitled to vote shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

45.2 Without prejudice to any other power that he may have under the provisions of the Articles or at common law, the chairman, acting in good faith, may take such action as he thinks fit to promote the orderly conduct of the business of the meeting as specified in the notice of meeting and the chairman's good faith decision on matters of procedure or arising incidentally from the business of the meeting shall be final, as shall be his determination as to whether any matter is of such a nature.

46. RIGHTS OF DIRECTORS AND OTHERS TO ATTEND MEETINGS

46.1 A Director (and any other person invited by the chairman of the meeting to do so) may attend and speak at a general meeting and at a separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares of the Company, whether or not he is a member.

46.2 The chairman may invite any person to attend and speak at any general meeting where he considers that this will assist in the deliberations of the meeting.

47. ACCOMMODATION OF MEMBERS AT MEETING

If it appears to the chairman of the meeting that the meeting place specified in the notice convening the meeting is inadequate to accommodate all members entitled and wishing to attend, the meeting will be duly constituted and its proceedings valid if the chairman is satisfied that adequate facilities are available to ensure that a member who is unable to be accommodated is able (whether at the meeting place or elsewhere):

- (A) to participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened;
- (B) to hear and see all persons present who speak (whether by the use of microphones, loud-speakers, audio-visual communications equipment or otherwise); and
- (C) to be heard and seen by all other persons present in the same way.

48. SECURITY

In addition to any measures which the Board may be required to take due to the location or venue of the meeting, the Board may make any arrangement and impose any restriction it considers appropriate and reasonable in the circumstances to ensure the security of a meeting including, without limitation, the provision of evidence of identity by any person attending the meeting, the searching of any such person and the imposing of restrictions on the items of personal property that may be taken into the meeting place. The Board may refuse entry to, or eject from, a meeting a person who refuses to comply with any such arrangements or restrictions.

49. POWER TO ADJOURN

- 49.1 The chairman of the meeting may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, and shall, if so directed by the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time (or indefinitely) and from place to place.
- 49.2 Without prejudice to any other power of adjournment which the chairman of the meeting may have under these Articles, at common law or otherwise, the chairman may, without the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time (or indefinitely) and from place to place if he decides that it is necessary or appropriate to do so in order to:
- (A) secure the proper and orderly conduct of the meeting; or
 - (B) give all persons entitled to do so an opportunity of attending the meeting; or
 - (C) give all persons entitled to do so a reasonable opportunity of speaking and voting at the meeting; or
 - (D) ensure that the business of the meeting is properly concluded or disposed of, including (without limitation) for the purpose of determining the result of a poll.

50. NOTICE OF ADJOURNED MEETING

- 50.1 Whenever a meeting is adjourned for thirty (30) days or more or indefinitely, at least seven clear days' notice, specifying the place, the day and time of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted, shall be given in the same manner as in the case of an original meeting. Except in these circumstances, no member shall be entitled to any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at any adjourned meeting.
- 50.2 The Board may determine that persons entitled to receive notice of an adjourned meeting in accordance with this Article 50 are those persons entered on the Register of Members at the close of business on a day determined by the Board, provided that, if the Company is a participating issuer, the day determined by the Board may not be more than 21 days before the day that the relevant notice of meeting is being sent.
- 50.3 The notice of an adjourned meeting given in accordance with this Article 50 may also specify a time (which, if the Company is a participating issuer, shall not be more than 48 hours before the time fixed for the meeting excluding any part of any day that is not a working day) by which a person must be entered on the Register of Members in order to have the right to attend or vote at the meeting. Changes to entries on the Register of Members after the time so specified in the notice shall be disregarded in determining the rights of any person to so attend or vote.

51. BUSINESS OF ADJOURNED MEETING

No business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

VOTING

52. VOTING AT A GENERAL MEETING

52.1 At a general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is demanded by either:

- (A) the chairman of the meeting;
- (B) at least five members present in person (or by proxy) having the right to vote on the resolution;
- (C) a member or members present in person (or by proxy) representing not less than ten per cent. (10%) of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote on the resolution; or
- (D) a member or members present in person (or by proxy) holding shares conferring a right to vote on the resolution on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than ten per cent. (10%) of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.

52.2 Unless a poll is so demanded and the demand is not withdrawn, a declaration by the chairman of the meeting that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the meeting, shall be conclusive evidence of that fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

52.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the chairman of the meeting. A demand so withdrawn shall not be taken to have invalidated the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result on a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.

53. POLL PROCEDURE

53.1 No poll shall be demanded on the election of a chairman of a meeting or (except with the consent of the chairman of the meeting) on any question of adjournment. A poll duly demanded on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith and a poll on any other matter shall be taken either forthwith or at such time and place, not being more than thirty (30) days from the date of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the poll was demanded, as the chairman of the meeting shall direct. The chairman of the meeting may direct the manner in which a poll shall be taken and may appoint scrutineers who need not be members. No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In any other case at least seven (7) clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

53.2 The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of the meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.

53.3 On a poll votes may be given in person or by proxy. A member entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.

54. VOTES OF MEMBERS

54.1 Subject to any rights or restrictions attaching to any shares and to any suspension or abrogation of voting rights pursuant to these Articles:

(A) on a show of hands every member who is entitled to vote on the relevant matter and who (being an individual) is present in person or by duly appointed proxy or (being a corporation) is present by a duly authorised representative who is not himself a member entitled to vote or by duly authorised representatives who are not themselves members entitled to vote shall have one vote (for the avoidance of doubt, a proxy who has been appointed by more than one member and has been instructed by one or more of those members to vote for the resolution and by one or more members to vote against the resolution, has one vote for and one vote against the resolution only. A proxy appointed by more than one member will not be restricted by the instructions to vote for or against the resolution he has received from casting a second vote the opposing way under discretionary authority given by other members.); and

(B) on a poll every member who (being an individual) is present in person or by duly appointed proxy or (being a corporation) is present by duly authorised representative(s) or by duly appointed proxy(ies) shall have one vote for every share of which he is the holder.

54.2 In the case of joint holders, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders. Seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the holders stand in the Register of Members in respect of the joint holding.

54.3 A member in respect of whom an order has been made by any court or official having jurisdiction (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) in matters concerning mental disorder or incapacity may vote, on a show of hands or on a poll, by his guardian or other person duly authorised to act on his behalf, who may vote on a poll by proxy. Evidence to the satisfaction of the Board of the authority of the person claiming the right to vote shall be deposited at the Registered Office, or at such other place as is specified in accordance with these Articles for the deposit of instruments of proxy, not less than 48 hours (excluding any day that is not a working day) before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the right to vote is to be exercised, and in default the right to vote shall not be exercisable.

54.4 Notwithstanding section 324A of the Act, the Company is under no obligation to check whether proxies or corporate representatives are voting in accordance with any instructions of the appointor and that votes will not be invalidated should instructions not be followed.

55. CHAIRMAN'S CASTING VOTE

In the case of an equality of votes, either on a show of hands or on a poll, for the avoidance of doubt the chairman of the meeting shall not be entitled to a further or casting vote in addition to any other vote he may have or be entitled to exercise.

56. VOTING RESTRICTIONS ON AN OUTSTANDING CALL

Unless the Board decides otherwise, no member shall be entitled to be present or vote at any meeting either personally or by proxy until he has paid all calls due and payable on every share held by him whether alone or jointly with any other person together with interest and expenses (if any) to the Company.

57. PROXY INSTRUMENT

57.1 The appointment of a proxy shall be in any usual form or in any other form which the Board may approve and, in the case of an instrument in writing, shall be executed by or on behalf of the appointor. In the case of an instrument in writing, a corporation may execute a form of proxy either under its common seal (or in any other manner permitted by law and having the same effect as if executed under seal) or under the hand of a duly authorised officer, attorney or other person. A member may appoint more than one proxy to attend on the same occasion, but only one proxy may be appointed in respect of any one share. The appointment of a proxy shall not preclude a member from attending and voting at the meeting or at any adjournment of it. A form of proxy shall, unless it provides to the contrary, be valid for any adjournment of the meeting to which it relates. The appointment of a person as proxy for a member must be notified to the Company in writing.

57.2 The appointment of a proxy and any authority under which it is executed or a copy of the authority certified notarially or in some other way approved by the Board may:

(A) in the case of an instrument in writing be deposited at the Registered Office or at such other place in the United Kingdom as is specified in the notice convening the meeting, or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Company in relation to the meeting, not less than 48 hours before (excluding any day that is not a working day) the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote; or

(B) in the case of an appointment contained in an electronic communication, be received at the address specified for the purpose of receiving electronic communications:

(1) in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Company in relation to the meeting; or

(2) in any invitation contained in an electronic communication to appoint a proxy issued by the Company in relation to the meeting; or

(3) as has been made available, throughout the period beginning with the first date in which the notice of the meeting is given and ending with the conclusion of the meeting, on the Company's website;

not less than 48 hours (excluding any day that is not a working day) before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote. Any document or information relating to proxies may be sent by electronic means to that such electronic address, subject to any conditions or limitations specified by the Company when providing the address;

(C) in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours (excluding any day that is not a working day) after it was demanded, be deposited or received at the place referred to in Article 57.2(A) and (B) after the poll has been demanded and not less than 24 hours (excluding any day that is not a working day) before the time appointed for taking the poll; or

- (D) where the poll is not taken forthwith but is taken not more than 48 hours (excluding any day that is not a working day) after it was demanded, be delivered at the meeting to the chairman of the meeting, the Secretary or any Director, and an appointment of proxy which is not deposited, delivered or received in a manner so permitted shall be invalid (unless the Board, in its absolute discretion in relation to any such appointment, waives any such requirement and decides to treat such appointment as valid). The appointment of a proxy will not be valid after twelve (12) months from its date or the date of its execution, except at an adjourned meeting or on a poll demanded at a meeting or an adjourned meeting in cases where the meeting was originally held within twelve (12) months from such date.

- 57.3 When two or more valid but differing appointments of proxy are delivered or received in respect of the same share for use at the same meeting and in respect of the same matter, the one which is last validly delivered or received (regardless of its date or of the date of its execution) shall be treated as replacing and revoking the other or others as regards that share. If the Company is unable to determine which appointment was last validly delivered or received, none of them shall be treated as valid in respect of that share.
- 57.4 An appointment of proxy shall be deemed (unless the contrary is stated in it) to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll and to vote, on a poll, on a resolution or a motion or an amendment of a resolution put to, or other business which may properly come before, the meeting or meetings for which it is given or any adjournment of any such meeting, as the proxy thinks fit. Such appointment shall not confer any further right to speak at the meeting, except with the permission of the chairman of the meeting.
- 57.5 The Board may at the expense of the Company send forms of appointment of proxy to the members by post, by electronic communication or otherwise (with or without provision for their return by pre-paid post) for use at any general meeting or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares, either blank or nominating as proxy in the alternative any one or more of the Directors or any other person. If for the purpose of any meeting invitations to appoint as proxy a person or one of a number of persons specified in the invitations are issued at the Company's expense, they shall be issued to all (and not to some only) of the members entitled to be sent notice of the meeting and to vote at it. The accidental omission to send such a form of appointment or invitation or failure to send such form of appointment or invitation due to circumstances beyond the Company's control to, or the non-receipt of such form of appointment or invitation by, any member entitled to attend and vote at a meeting shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

58. TERMINATION OF PROXY OR CORPORATE AUTHORITY

A vote given or poll demanded by proxy or by the duly authorised representative of a corporation shall be valid notwithstanding the previous termination of the authority of the person voting or demanding a poll, unless written notice of the termination was received by the Company at the Registered Office, or at such other place at which the instrument of proxy was duly deposited, or, where the appointment of proxy was contained in an electronic communication, at the address at which such appointment was duly received, at least one (1) hour before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote is given or the poll demanded or (in the case of a poll not taken on the same day as the meeting or adjourned meeting) at least one (1) hour before the time appointed for taking the poll.

59. CORPORATE REPRESENTATIVES

- 59.1 A corporation which is a member may, by resolution of its directors or other governing body, authorise such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or at any separate meeting of the holders of any class of shares.
- 59.2 Any person or persons so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation (in respect of that part of the corporation's holdings to which the authority relates) as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual member. If more than one person is authorised by a corporation, such corporate representatives of that corporation may exercise their powers on behalf of the corporation in a different manner in respect of different shares held by the corporation but not in respect of the same shares.
- 59.3 The corporation shall for the purposes of these Articles be deemed to be present in person at any such meeting if a person so authorised is present at it. All references in these Articles to attendance and voting in person shall be construed accordingly.
- 59.4 A Director, the Secretary or some other person authorised for the purpose by the Secretary may require the representative to produce a certified copy of the resolution so authorising him or such other evidence of his authority reasonably satisfactory to such person before permitting him to exercise his powers.

60. AMENDMENT TO RESOLUTIONS

- 60.1 If an amendment shall be proposed to any resolution but shall in good faith be ruled out of order by the chairman of the meeting, any error in such ruling shall not invalidate the proceedings on the substantive resolution.
- 60.2 An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if:
- (A) the proposed amendment is to correct a patent error and does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chairman of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution; or
 - (B) at least 48 hours prior to the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which such resolution is to be proposed, notice in writing of the terms of the amendment and intention to move it has been lodged at the Registered Office or received in electronic form at the electronic address at which the Company has or is deemed to have agreed to receive it; or
 - (C) the chairman of the meeting in his absolute discretion decides that it may be proposed.
- 60.3 Any proposed amendment to an ordinary resolution may be withdrawn by the proposer at, or prior to the time appointed for holding, the general meeting or adjourned meeting at which such resolution is to be proposed with the prior consent of the chairman of the meeting.
- 60.4 A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if -
- (A) the chairman of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
 - (B) the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.

61. OBJECTION TO ERROR IN VOTING

No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter or to the counting of, or failure to count, any vote, except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered or at which the error occurs. Any such objection or error shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting (whose decision shall be final and conclusive), who shall not be obliged to take it into account unless he considers it to be of sufficient magnitude to affect the decision of the meeting. The chairman's decision on such matters shall be final and binding on all concerned.

FAILURE TO DISCLOSE INTERESTS IN SHARES

62. FAILURE TO DISCLOSE INTERESTS IN SHARES

62.1 For the purpose of this Article 62:

- (A) "Exempt Transfer" means, in relation to shares held by a member:
- (1) it is a transfer of shares pursuant to an acceptance of a takeover offer (within the meaning of Section 974 of the Act;
 - (2) a transfer in consequence of a sale made through the London Stock Exchange or any investment exchange selected by the Company outside the United Kingdom on which any shares are normally traded; or
 - (3) a transfer which is shown to the satisfaction of the Board to be made in consequence of a sale in good faith of the whole of the beneficial interest in the shares to a person who is unconnected with the member and with any other person appearing to be interested in the shares;
- (B) "interested" is construed as it is for the purpose of section 793 of the Act;
- (C) a person, other than the member holding a share, shall be treated as appearing to be interested in such share if the member has informed the Company that the person is or may be so interested, or if the Company (after taking account of information obtained from the member or, pursuant to a section 793 notice from anyone else) knows or has reasonable cause to believe that the person is or may be so interested;
- (D) reference to a person having failed to give to the Company information required by a section 793 notice, or being in default of supplying such information, includes references to his having:
- (1) failed or refused to give all or any part of such information; and
 - (2) given information which he knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly given information which is false in a material particular; and
- (E) "transfer" means a transfer of a share or (where applicable) a renunciation of a renounceable letter of allotment or other renounceable document of title relating to a share.

62.2 Where notice is given by the Company under section 793 of the Act (a "section 793 notice") to a member, or another person appearing to be interested in shares held by such member, and the member or other person has failed in relation to any shares ("Default Shares", which expression applies also to any shares issued after the date of the section 793 notice in respect of those shares and to any other shares registered in the name of such member at any time whilst the default subsists) to give the Company the information required within fourteen (14) clear days after the date of the section 793 notice, unless the Board otherwise decides:

- (A) the member is not entitled in respect of the Default Shares to be present or to vote (either in person or by proxy) at a general meeting or at a separate meeting of the holders of a class of shares or on a poll, or to exercise other rights conferred by membership in relation to the meeting or poll; and
- (B) where the Default Shares represent at least 0.25 per cent. in nominal value of the issued shares of their class:
 - (1) a dividend (or any part of a dividend) payable in respect of the Default Shares (except on a winding up of the Company) may be withheld by the Company, which shall have no obligation to pay interest on such dividend;
 - (2) the member shall not be entitled to elect, pursuant to Article 125 (scrip dividends) or otherwise, to receive shares instead of a dividend; and
 - (3) the Board may, in its absolute discretion, refuse to register the transfer of any Default Shares (subject, in the case of any uncertificated shares, to the Uncertificated Securities Regulations) unless:
 - (a) the transfer is an Exempt Transfer; or
 - (b) the member is not himself in default in supplying the information required and proves to the satisfaction of the Board that no person in default of supplying the information required is interested in any of the shares which are the subject of the transfer.

62.3 The sanctions under Article 62.2 shall cease to apply seven (7) days after the earlier of:

- (A) receipt by the Company of notice of an Exempt Transfer, but only in relation to the shares transferred; and
- (B) receipt by the Company, in a form satisfactory to the Board, of all the information required by the section 793 notice.

62.4 The Board may:

- (A) give notice in writing to any member holding Default Shares in uncertificated form requiring the member:
 - (1) to change his holding of such shares from uncertificated form into certificated form within a specified period; and
 - (2) then to hold such Default Shares in certificated form for so long as the default subsists; and
- (B) appoint any person to take any steps, by instruction by means of the Uncertificated System or otherwise, in the name of any holder of Default Shares as may be required to change such shares from uncertificated form into certificated form (and such steps shall be effective as if they had been taken by such holder).

- 62.5 The provisions of this Article 62 are in addition and without prejudice to the provisions of the Companies Acts, and in particular shall not prevent the Company from making an application for restrictions to be placed on any shares under section 794 of the Act.

APPOINTMENT, RETIREMENT AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

63. NUMBER OF DIRECTORS

Unless and until otherwise determined by the Company by ordinary resolution, the number of Directors (other than alternate Directors) shall be not less than two (2) in number. The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution fix a maximum number of directors and from time to time vary that maximum number.

64. NO SHARE QUALIFICATION

A Director need not hold any shares but shall be entitled to receive notice of, attend and speak at all general meetings of the Company and of any class of members of the Company.

65. COMPANY'S POWER TO APPOINT DIRECTORS

- 65.1 Subject to these Articles, the Company may by ordinary resolution appoint a person who is willing to act to be a Director, either to fill a vacancy or as an addition to the existing Directors, subject to the total number of Directors not exceeding any maximum number fixed by or in accordance with these Articles.

- 65.2 A resolution for the appointment of two or more persons as Directors by a single resolution at a general meeting shall be void unless a resolution that the resolution for appointment be proposed in such way has first been agreed to by the meeting without any vote being given against it.

66. BOARD'S POWER TO APPOINT DIRECTORS

- 66.1 Without prejudice to the Company's power to appoint a person to be a Director pursuant to these Articles, the Board shall have power at any time to appoint any person who is willing to act as a Director, either to fill a vacancy or as an addition to the existing Board, subject to the total number of Directors not exceeding any maximum number fixed by or in accordance with these Articles.

- 66.2 Any Director so appointed after the date of adoption of these Articles shall, if still a Director, retire at the next annual general meeting after his appointment and be eligible to stand for election as a Director at such meeting. Such person shall not be taken into account in determining the number or identity of Directors who are to retire by rotation at such meeting.

67. APPOINTMENT OF EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

Subject to the Companies Acts, the Board may appoint one or more of its members to an executive office or other position of employment with the Company for such term (subject to the Companies Acts) and on any other conditions the Board thinks fit. The Board may revoke, terminate or vary the terms of any such appointment, without prejudice to a claim for damages for breach of contract between the Director and the Company.

If any member of the Board so appointed to an executive office or other position of employment with the Company ceases for any reason to be a director of the Company, provided that if any such Director retires but is re-appointed or deemed to be re-appointed at the same meeting, any valid appointment to an executive office or other position of employment with the Company which was in force immediately before his retirement shall remain in force, his executive office or other position of employment with the Company shall immediately terminate.

68. ELIGIBILITY OF NEW DIRECTORS

No person, other than a Director retiring (by rotation or otherwise), shall be appointed or re-appointed a Director at any general meeting unless:

- (A) he is recommended for appointment by the Board; or
- (B) not less than seven (7) nor more than forty two (42) clear days before the date appointed for the meeting, a notice executed by a member (other than the person to be proposed) qualified to vote at the meeting has been given to the Company at the Registered Office of the intention to propose such person for appointment or re-appointment, stating the particulars which would, if he were so appointed or re-appointed, be required to be included in the Company's register of directors, accompanied by a notice executed by that person of his willingness to be appointed or re-appointed.

69. ROTATIONAL RETIREMENT AT ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

- 69.1 Each Director is subject to retirement by rotation in accordance with these Articles, subject to Article 70 (Position of Retiring Director).
- 69.2 At each annual general meeting one third of the Directors who are subject to retirement by rotation or, if their number is not three (3) nor a multiple of three (3), the number nearest to one third, shall retire from office, provided always that a Director who is subject to retirement by rotation shall retire at the third annual general meeting after the annual general meeting or general meeting (as the case may be) at which he was previously appointed or re-appointed. If there are fewer than three (3) Directors who are subject to retirement by rotation, one of them shall retire from office at the annual general meeting.
- 69.3 Subject to the Companies Acts and these Articles, the Directors to retire by rotation at each annual general meeting shall be, so far as necessary to obtain the number required, first, any Director who wishes to retire and not offer himself for re-election and, secondly, those Directors who have been longest in office since their last appointment or re-appointment. As between two (2) or more Directors who have been in office an equal length of time, the Director to retire shall, in default of agreement between them, be determined by lot. The Directors to retire on each occasion (both as to number and identity) shall be determined by the composition of the Board at the start of business seven (7) days before the date of the notice convening the annual general meeting notwithstanding any change in the number or identity of the Directors after that time but before the close of the meeting.
- 69.4 If the Board so decides, one (1) or more other Directors selected by the Board may also retire at an annual general meeting as if any such other Director was also retiring by rotation at that meeting in accordance with these Articles.
- 69.5 Any Director who has held office with the Company, other than employment or executive office, and who, at the date of the annual general meeting, has held such office for nine (9) years or more, shall be subject to re-appointment at each annual general meeting.

70. POSITION OF RETIRING DIRECTOR

- 70.1 A Director who retires at an annual general meeting (whether by rotation or otherwise) may, if willing to act, be re-appointed. If he is not re-appointed or deemed to have been re-appointed, he shall retain office until the meeting appoints someone in his place or, if it does not do so, until the end of the meeting.
- 70.2 At any general meeting at which a Director retires by rotation, the Company may fill the vacancy and, if it does not do so, the retiring Director shall, if willing, be deemed to have been re-appointed unless it is expressly resolved not to fill the vacancy or a resolution for the re-appointment of the Director is put to the meeting and lost.

71. REMOVAL BY ORDINARY RESOLUTION

In addition to any power of removal under the Companies Acts and subject to the Companies Acts, the Company may:

- (A) by ordinary resolution remove any Director before the expiration of his period of office, but without prejudice to any claim for damages which he may have for breach of any contract of service between him and the Company; and
- (B) by ordinary resolution appoint another person who is willing to act to be a Director in his place (subject to these Articles).

Any person so appointed shall be treated, for the purposes of determining the time at which he or any other Director is to retire, as if he had become a Director on the day on which the person in whose place he is appointed was last appointed or re-appointed a Director.

72. VACATION OF DIRECTOR'S OFFICE

- 72.1 Without prejudice to the provisions in these Articles for retirement (by rotation or otherwise) the office of a Director shall be vacated if:
- (A) he resigns by notice in writing delivered to the Secretary at the Registered Office or at an address specified by the Company for the purposes of communication by electronic means or tendered at a Board meeting;
 - (B) he offers to resign by notice in writing delivered to the Secretary at the Registered Office or at an address specified by the Company for the purposes of communication by electronic means or tendered at a Board meeting and the Board resolves to accept such offer;
 - (C) he only held office as a Director for a fixed term and such term expires;
 - (D) he ceases to be a Director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Acts, is removed from office pursuant to these Articles or the Companies Acts or becomes prohibited by law from being a Director;
 - (E) he becomes bankrupt, has an interim receiving order made against him, makes any arrangement or compounds with his creditors generally or applies to the court for an interim order in connection with a voluntary arrangement under any legislation relating to insolvency;

- (F) a registered medical practitioner who is treating him gives a written opinion to the Company stating that he has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a Director and may remain so for more than three months;
 - (G) he is absent, without permission of the Board, from Board meetings for six consecutive months (whether or not an alternate Director attends in his place) and the Board resolves that his office be vacated;
 - (H) he is removed from office by notice in writing addressed to him at his address as shown in the Company's register of directors and signed by not less than three-quarters of all the Directors in number (without prejudice to any claim for damages which he may have for breach of contract against the Company); or
 - (I) in the case of a Director who holds executive office, his appointment to such office is terminated or expires and the Board resolves that his office be vacated.
- 72.2 A resolution of the Board declaring a Director to have vacated office pursuant to this Article 72 shall be conclusive as to the fact and grounds of vacation stated in the resolution.
- 72.3 If the office of a Director is vacated for any reason, he shall cease to be a member of any committee of the Board.
- 72.4 In this Article 72, delivery of notice may be in writing, including the use of electronic communications subject to such terms and conditions as the Board may decide.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

73. APPOINTMENT

- 73.1 A Director (other than an alternate Director) may appoint any other Director or any person approved for that purpose by the Board and willing to act, to be his alternate by notice in writing delivered to the Secretary at the Registered Office, or in any other manner approved by the Board.

The appointment of an alternate Director who is not already a Director shall:

- (1) require the approval of either a majority of the Directors or the Board by way of a Board resolution; and
 - (2) not be effective until his consent to act as a Director in the form prescribed by the Companies Acts has been received at the Registered Office.
- 73.2 An alternate Director need not hold a share qualification and shall not be counted in reckoning any maximum or minimum number of Directors allowed by these Articles.

74. RESPONSIBILITY

Every person acting as an alternate Director shall be an officer of the Company, shall alone be responsible to the Company for his own acts and defaults and shall not be deemed to be the agent of the Director appointing him.

75. PARTICIPATION AT BOARD MEETINGS

- 75.1 An alternate Director shall (subject to his giving to the Company an address within the United Kingdom at which notices may be served on him) be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of the Board and all committees of the Board of which his appointor is a member and, in the absence from such meetings of his appointor, to attend and vote at such meetings and to exercise all the powers, rights, duties and authorities of his appointor (other than the power to appoint an alternate Director). A Director acting as alternate Director shall have a separate vote at Board meetings for each Director for whom he acts as alternate Director, but he shall count as only one for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present.

- 75.2 Signature by an alternate Director of any resolution in writing of the Board or a committee of the Board will, unless the notice of his appointment provides otherwise, be as effective as signature by his appointor.

76. INTERESTS

An alternate Director shall be entitled to contract and be interested in and benefit from contracts or arrangements with the Company and to be repaid expenses and to be indemnified in the same way and to the same extent as a Director. However, he shall not be entitled to receive from the Company any fees for his services as alternate, except only such part (if any) of the fee payable to his appointor as such appointor may by notice in writing to the Company direct. Subject to this Article 76, the Company shall pay to an alternate Director such expenses as might properly have been paid to him if he had been a Director.

77. TERMINATION OF APPOINTMENT

An alternate Director shall cease to be an alternate Director:

- (A) if his appointor revokes his appointment by notice delivered to the Secretary at the Registered Office or in any other manner approved by the Board; or
- (B) if he resigns his office of alternate Director by notice delivered to the Secretary at the Registered Office or in any other manner approved by the Board; or
- (C) if his appointor ceases for any reason to be a Director, provided that if any Director retires but is re-appointed or deemed to be re-appointed at the same meeting, any valid appointment of the alternate Director which was in force immediately before his retirement shall remain in force; or
- (D) if any event happens in relation to him which, if he were a Director, would cause his office as Director to be vacated.

BOARD POWERS

78. BOARD POWERS

Subject to the Companies Acts, these Articles and to any directions given by special resolution of the Company, the business of the Company shall be managed by the Board, which may exercise all the powers of the Company whether relating to the management of the business or not. No alteration of these Articles nor any such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if such alteration had not been made or such direction had not been given. The provisions in these Articles giving specific powers to the Board shall not limit the general powers given by this Article 78.

79. DIRECTORS BELOW THE MINIMUM NUMBER

If the number of Directors is less than the minimum prescribed in accordance with these Articles, the remaining Director or Directors shall act only for the purposes of appointing an additional Director or Directors to make up such minimum or of convening a general meeting of the Company for the purpose of making such appointment. If there are no Director or Directors able or willing to act, any two members may summon a general meeting for the purpose of appointing Directors. Any additional Director so appointed shall hold office (subject to these Articles) only until the dissolution of the annual general meeting next following such appointment unless he is re-elected during such meeting.

80. DELEGATION TO EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

The Board may delegate to a Director holding executive office any of its powers, authorities and discretions for such time and on such terms and conditions as it shall think fit. The Board may grant to a Director the power to sub-delegate, and may retain or exclude the right of the Board to exercise the delegated powers, authorities or discretions collaterally with the Director. The Board may at any time revoke the delegation or alter its terms and conditions.

81. DELEGATION TO COMMITTEES

81.1 The Board may delegate any of its powers, authorities and discretions (including, without limitation, those relating to the payment of monies or other remuneration to, and the conferring of benefits on, a Director) for such time and on such terms and conditions as it shall think fit to a committee consisting of one or more Directors and (if thought fit) one or more other persons, provided always that a majority of committee members shall be Directors. No resolution or decision may be passed or taken at a meeting of a committee unless a majority of committee members present at the committee meeting are Directors. The Board may grant to the committee the power to sub-delegate, and may retain or exclude the right of the Board to exercise the delegated powers, authorities or discretions collaterally with the committee. The Board may at any time revoke the delegation or alter its terms and conditions or discharge the committee in whole or in part. Where a provision of the Articles refers to the exercise of a power, authority or discretion by the Board and that power, authority or discretion has been delegated by the Board to a committee, the provision shall be construed as permitting the exercise of the power, authority or discretion by the committee.

81.2 The Board's power under these Articles to delegate to a committee:

- (A) includes (without limitation) the power to delegate the determination of any fee, remuneration or other benefit to be paid or provided to any Director; and
- (B) is not limited by the fact that in some Articles but not others express reference is made to particular powers being exercised by the Board or by a committee.

82. LOCAL MANAGEMENT

The Board may establish local or divisional boards, agencies or branch offices for managing the affairs of the Company in a specified locality, either in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, and may appoint persons to be members of a local or divisional board, agency or branch office and may fix their remuneration. The Board may delegate to a local or divisional board, agency or branch office any of its powers, authorities and discretions for such time and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit. The Board may grant to such local or divisional board, agency or branch office the power to sub-delegate, may retain or exclude the right of the Board to exercise the delegated powers, authorities or discretions collaterally with the local or divisional board, agency or branch office and may authorise the members of a local or divisional board, agency or branch (or any of them) to fill a vacancy or to act despite a vacancy. The Board may at any time revoke or alter the terms and conditions of the appointment or delegation. Subject to the terms and conditions imposed by the Board, the proceedings of a local or divisional board, agency or branch office with two or more members are governed by those Articles that regulate the proceedings of the Board, so far as applicable.

83. DELEGATION TO AGENTS

The Board may, by power of attorney or otherwise, appoint a person to be the agent of the Company and may delegate to such person any of its powers, authorities and discretions for such purposes, for such time and on such terms and conditions (including as to remuneration) as it thinks fit. The Board may grant the power to sub-delegate and may retain or exclude the right of the Board to exercise the delegated powers, authorities or discretions collaterally with the agent. The Board may at any time revoke or alter the terms and conditions of the appointment or delegation.

84. EXERCISE OF VOTING POWER

The Board may exercise or cause to be exercised the voting power conferred by shares in any other body corporate held or owned by the Company, or any power of appointment to be exercised by the Company, in any manner it thinks fit (including the exercise of the voting power or power of appointment in favour of the appointment of any Director as a director or other officer or employee of such company or in favour of the payment of remuneration to the directors, officers or employees of such company).

85. PROVISION FOR EMPLOYEES

The Board may exercise any power conferred on the Company by the Companies Acts to make provision for the benefit of persons employed or formerly employed by any Group Undertaking (or any member of his family or any person who is dependent on him) in connection with the cessation or the transfer to any person of the whole or part of the undertaking of such Group Undertaking.

86. OVERSEAS REGISTERS

Subject to the Companies Acts and the Uncertificated Securities Regulations, the Board may exercise the powers conferred on the Company with regard to the keeping of an overseas branch, local or other register in relation to members and may make and vary such regulations as it thinks fit concerning the keeping of any such register.

87. ASSOCIATE DIRECTORS

The Board may appoint any person (not being a Director) to any office or employment having a designation or title including the word "director" or attach to any existing office or employment with the Company such designation or title and may terminate any such appointment or the use of such designation or title. The inclusion of the word "director" in the designation or title of any such office or employment shall not imply that such person is, or is deemed to be, or is empowered in any respect to act as, a Director for any of the purposes of the Companies Acts or these Articles.

88. BORROWING POWERS

88.1 Subject to this Article 88, the Board may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money and to mortgage or charge all or part of the undertaking, property and assets (present or future) and uncalled capital of the Company and, subject to the Companies Acts, to create and issue debentures and other securities, whether outright or as collateral security for a debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of a third party.

88.2 The Board shall restrict the borrowings of the Company and shall exercise all voting and other rights or powers of control exercisable by the Company in relation to its subsidiary undertakings so as to ensure (as regards subsidiary undertakings, to the extent possible by such exercise) that the aggregate of the amounts borrowed by the Group and remaining outstanding at any time (excluding intra Group borrowings) shall not without the previous sanction of an ordinary resolution of the Company exceed an amount equal to two times the gross asset value of the Group where gross asset value is defined as total fixed plus total current assets as measured under UK GAAP or total current plus total non-current assets as measured under IFRS as appropriate provided always that no such sanction shall be required to the borrowing of any moneys intended to be applied and actually applied within six months in the repayment (with or without premium) of any moneys previously borrowed and then outstanding, notwithstanding that the same may result in the said limit being exceeded during such period.

88.3 In this Article:

- (A) share capital allotted shall be treated as issued and any share capital already called up or payable at any future date within the following twelve months shall be treated as already paid up and if the Company proposes to issue any shares for cash and the issue of such shares has been underwritten then such shares shall be deemed to have been issued and the subscription moneys (including any premium) payable in respect thereof within the following twelve months shall be deemed to have been paid up;
- (B) any company which it is proposed shall become a subsidiary contemporaneously with any relevant transaction shall be treated as if it had already become a subsidiary;
- (C) the following shall (unless otherwise taken into account) be deemed to be included in moneys borrowed (a) debentures issued in whole or in part for a consideration other than cash, (b) amounts outstanding under acceptance credits (other than in respect of the purchase of goods in the ordinary course of trading), (c) the nominal amount of any share capital issued and the principal amount of any moneys borrowed the redemption or repayment, whereof is guaranteed by the Company or by any subsidiary except in so far as such share capital is for the time being held by or such moneys are for the time being owing to, and the beneficial interest therein is vested in, the Company or any subsidiary; and
- (D) any fixed premium payable on final redemption or repayment of any debentures or other borrowed moneys or share capital shall be taken into account as an addition to the principal or nominal amount thereof.

88.4 No person dealing with the Company or any of its subsidiaries shall by reason of the foregoing provision be concerned to see or inquire whether the said limit is observed and no debt incurred or security given in excess of such limit shall be invalid or ineffectual unless the lender or the recipient of the security had at the time when the debt was incurred or the security given express notice that the said limit had been or would thereby be exceeded.

DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION, EXPENSES AND BENEFITS

89. FEES

Unless otherwise decided by the Company by ordinary resolution, the Company shall pay to the Directors (but not alternate Directors) for their services as Directors such aggregate amount of fees as the Board decides (not exceeding £150,000 per annum or such larger amount as the Company may by ordinary resolution decide). The aggregate fees shall be divided among the Directors in such proportions as the Board decides or, if no decision is made, equally. A fee payable to a Director pursuant to this Article 8989 shall be distinct from any salary or remuneration payable to him under a service agreement or other amount payable to him pursuant to other provisions of these Articles and accrues from day to day.

90. EXPENSES

A Director may also be paid all travelling, hotel and other expenses properly incurred by him in connection with his attendance at meetings of the Board or of committees of the Board or general meetings or separate meetings of the holders of any class of shares or otherwise in connection with the discharge of his duties as a Director, including (without limitation) any professional fees incurred by him (with the approval of the Board or in accordance with any procedures stipulated by the Board) in taking independent professional advice in connection with the discharge of such duties.

91. REMUNERATION OF EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

The salary or remuneration of a Director appointed to hold employment or executive office in accordance with the Articles may be a fixed sum of money, or wholly or in part governed by business done or profits made, or as otherwise decided by the Board (including, for the avoidance of doubt, by the Board acting through a duly authorised Board committee), and may be in addition to or instead of a fee payable to him for his services as Director pursuant to these Articles.

92. SPECIAL REMUNERATION

A Director who, at the request of the Board, goes or resides abroad, makes a special journey or performs a special service on behalf of or for the Company (including, without limitation, services as a chairman or vice-chairman of the Board, services as a member of any Board committee and services which the Board considers to be outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a Director) may be paid such reasonable additional remuneration (whether by way of salary, bonus, commission, percentage of profits or otherwise) and expenses as the Board (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Board acting through a duly authorised Board committee) may decide.

93. PENSIONS AND OTHER BENEFITS

The Board may exercise all the powers of the Company to provide pensions or other retirement or superannuation benefits and to provide death or disability benefits or other allowances or gratuities (by insurance or otherwise) for a person who is or has at any time been a Director, an officer or a director or an employee of a company which is or was a Group Undertaking, a company which is or was allied to or associated with the Company or with a Group Undertaking or a predecessor in business of the Company or of a Group Undertaking (and for any member of his family, including a spouse or former spouse, or a person who is or was dependent on him). For this purpose the Board may establish, maintain, subscribe and contribute to any scheme, trust or fund and pay premiums and, subject to the Companies Acts, lend money or make payments to, guarantee or give an indemnity in respect of, or give any financial or other assistance in connection with any of the matters set out in this Article. The Board may arrange for this to be done by the Company alone or in conjunction with another person. A Director or former Director is entitled to receive and retain for his own benefit any pension or other benefit provided in accordance with this Article 93 and is not obliged to account for it to the Company. The receipt of any such benefit will not disqualify any person from being or becoming a Director of the Company.

DIRECTORS' PROCEEDINGS

94. BOARD MEETINGS

Subject to these Articles, the Board may regulate its proceedings as it thinks fit.

95. NOTICE OF BOARD MEETINGS

A Director may, and the Secretary at the request of a Director shall, call a meeting of the Board. Notice of a Board meeting shall be deemed to be duly given to a Director if it is given to him personally or by word of mouth or sent in writing to his last known address within the United Kingdom or any other address within the United Kingdom given to the Company by him for such purpose or given by electronic communications to an address for the time being notified to the Company by the Director. It shall not be necessary to give notice of a Board meeting to a Director who is absent from the United Kingdom unless the Director has notified the Company in writing of an address in the United Kingdom or an address for electronic communications at which notice of such meetings is to be given to him when he is absent from the United Kingdom. A Director may be treated as having waived his entitlement to notice of a meeting of the Board if he has not supplied the Company with the information necessary to ensure that he receives notice of a meeting before it takes place. A Director may waive the requirement that notice of any Board meeting be given to him, either prospectively or retrospectively.

96. QUORUM

96.1 No business shall be transacted at any meeting of the Board unless a quorum is present. The quorum may be fixed by the Board and unless so fixed at any other number shall be two (2). An alternate Director who is not himself a Director shall, if his appointor is not present, be counted in the quorum. A duly convened Board meeting at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise any and all of the authorities, discretions and powers vested in or exercisable by the Board.

96.2 If a Director ceases to be a director at a Board meeting, he can continue to be present and to act as a director and be counted in the quorum until the end of the meeting if no other Director objects and if otherwise a quorum of Directors would not be present.

97. BOARD CHAIRMAN

The Board may appoint any Director to be, and may remove, a chairman and a vice chairman of the Board. The chairman or, in his absence, the vice chairman, shall preside at all Board meetings. If there is no chairman or vice chairman, or if at a Board meeting neither the chairman nor the vice chairman is present within five (5) minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, or if neither of them is willing to act as chairman, the Directors present may choose any Director present to be chairman of the meeting.

98. VOTING

Questions arising at a meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman shall not have a second or casting vote.

99. TELEPHONE PARTICIPATION

A Director or his alternate Director may participate in a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board through the medium of conference telephone, video conferencing or any other form of communication equipment if all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear and speak to each other throughout the meeting. A person participating in this way shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting and shall be counted in a quorum and entitled to vote. Subject to the Companies Acts, all business transacted in this way by the Board or a committee of the Board shall be deemed for the purposes of the Articles to be validly and effectively transacted at a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board even if one Director only is physically present at any one place. The meeting shall be deemed to take place where the largest group of those participating is assembled or, if there is no such group, where the chairman of the meeting then is.

100. WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

100.1 A resolution in writing executed by all the Directors for the time being entitled to receive notice of a Board meeting and in number not being less than a quorum, or by all the members of a committee of the Board for the time being entitled to receive notice of the meetings of such committee and in number not being less than a quorum of such committee, shall be as valid and effective for all purposes as a resolution duly passed at a meeting of the Board (or committee, as the case may be).

100.2 Such a resolution:

- (A) may consist of several documents in the same form each executed by one or more of the Directors or members of the relevant committee, including executions evidenced by facsimile transmission;
- (B) need not be signed by an alternate Director if it is signed by his appointor;
- (C) if signed by an alternate Director, need not also be signed by his appointor; and
- (D) to be effective, need not be signed by a Director who is prohibited by these Articles from voting on it, or by his alternate.

101. COMMITTEE PROCEEDINGS

Proceedings of committees of the Board shall be conducted in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Board (if any). Subject to those regulations, such proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with applicable provisions of these Articles regulating the proceedings of the Board. Where the Board resolves to delegate any of its powers, authorities and discretions to a committee and such resolution states that the committee shall consist of any one or more unnamed Directors, it shall not be necessary to give notice of a meeting of such committee to any Directors other than the Director or Directors who form the committee.

102. MINUTES

102.1 The Board shall cause minutes to be made of:

- (A) all appointments of officers and committees made by the Board and of any such officer's remuneration; and
- (B) the names of Directors present at every meeting of the Board, a committee of the Board, the Company or the holders of any class of shares or debentures, and all orders, resolutions and proceedings of such meetings.

102.2 Any such minutes, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings were held or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting or the Secretary, shall be prima facie evidence of the matters stated in them.

103. VALIDITY OF PROCEEDINGS

All acts done in good faith by a meeting of the Board, or of a committee of the Board, or by a person acting as a Director, an alternate Director or a committee member shall, notwithstanding that it may be discovered afterwards that there was a defect in the appointment of any person so acting or that any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Director, alternate Director or committee member and entitled to vote.

INTERESTS OF DIRECTORS

104. PERMITTED INTERESTS

Subject to the Companies Acts and compliance with the next Article 105, a Director, notwithstanding his office:

- (1) may enter into or otherwise be interested in any contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal with the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested, either in connection with his tenure of any office or place of profit or as vendor, purchaser or otherwise;
- (2) may hold any other office or place of profit under the Company (except that of auditor) in conjunction with the office of Director and may act by himself or through his firm in a professional capacity for the Company, and in any such case on such terms as to remuneration and otherwise as the Board may arrange, either in addition to or in lieu of any remuneration provided for by any other Article;
- (3) may be a director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal with or otherwise interested in, any body corporate promoted by the Company or in which the Company is otherwise interested or as regards which the Company has any powers of appointment; and
- (4) shall not be liable to account to the Company for any profit, remuneration or other benefit realised by any such office, employment, contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal, and no such contract, arrangement, transaction or proposal shall be avoided on the grounds of any such interest or benefit.

105. DISCLOSURE OF INTERESTS TO BOARD

A Director who is in any way (directly or indirectly) interested in any contract or arrangement or any other proposal with the Company shall declare the nature of his interest at the meeting of the Board at which the question of entering into the contract, arrangement or proposal is first considered, if he knows his interest then exists or, in any other case, at the first meeting of the Board after he knows that he is or has become so interested. For the purposes of this Article 105 a general notice given to the Board by a Director that he is to be regarded as having an interest (of the nature and extent specified in the notice) in any contract, arrangement or proposal in which a specified person or class of persons is interested shall be deemed to be a sufficient disclosure under this Article 105 in relation to such contract, arrangement or proposal of the nature and extent so specified.

106. INTERESTED DIRECTOR NOT TO VOTE OR COUNT FOR QUORUM

A Director shall not vote on, or be counted in the quorum in relation to, any resolution of the Board or of a committee of the Board concerning any contract or arrangement or any other proposal to which the Company is or is to be a party and in which he has an interest

(otherwise than by virtue of his interests in shares or debentures or other securities of, or otherwise in or through, the Company), other than a resolution:

- (1) relating to the giving of any security, guarantee or indemnity to him in respect of money lent or obligations incurred by him or by any other person at the request of or for the benefit of a Group Undertaking;
- (2) relating to the giving of any security, guarantee or indemnity in respect of a debt or obligation of a Group Undertaking for which he himself has assumed responsibility in whole or in part under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;
- (3) relating to, or in the context of, an offer of securities by a Group Undertaking in which he is or may be entitled to participate as a holder of securities or in the underwriting or sub-underwriting of which he is to participate;
- (4) relating to another company in which he does not have to his knowledge an interest in shares (as that term is used in sections 820 to 825 of the Act) representing one per cent. (1%) or more of either any class of the equity share capital, or the voting rights in, such company;
- (5) relating to an arrangement for the benefit of employees of any Group Undertaking which does not award him any privilege or benefit not generally awarded to the employees to whom such arrangement relates;
- (6) concerning insurance which the Company proposes to maintain or purchase for the benefit of Directors or for the benefit of persons including Directors; or
- (7) in respect of which the interest of the Director cannot reasonably be regarded as conflicting.

107. DIRECTOR'S INTEREST IN OWN APPOINTMENT

A Director shall not vote or be counted in the quorum on any resolution of the Board or committee of the Board concerning his own appointment (including fixing or varying or recommending the terms of his appointment or its termination) as a holder of any office or place of profit with the Company or any body corporate in which the Company is interested. Where proposals are under consideration concerning the appointment (including fixing or varying or recommending the terms of appointment or the termination thereof) of two or more Directors to offices or places of profits with the Company or any body corporate in which the Company is interested, such proposals may be divided and a separate resolution considered in relation to each Director. In such case each of the Directors concerned (if not debarred from voting under these Articles) shall be entitled to vote (and be counted in the quorum) in respect of each resolution except that concerning his own appointment.

108. CONCLUSIVE RULINGS ON DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

- (A) If any question arises at any meeting as to the materiality of the interest of a Director (other than the chairman of the meeting) or as to the entitlement of any Director (other than the chairman) to vote or be counted in the quorum and such question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting or being counted in the quorum, such question shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting. The chairman's ruling in relation to such Director shall be conclusive and binding on all concerned (except in a case where the nature or extent of the interest of such Director, as known to him, has not been adequately disclosed to the meeting).

- (B) If any question arises at any meeting as to the materiality of the interest of the chairman of the meeting or as to his entitlement to vote or be counted in the quorum and such question is not resolved by his voluntarily agreeing to abstain from voting or being counted in the quorum, such question shall be decided by a resolution of the Directors or committee members present at the meeting (excluding the chairman), whose majority vote shall be conclusive and binding on all concerned (except in a case where the nature or extent of the interest of such chairman, as known to him, has not been adequately disclosed to the meeting).

109. CONNECTED PERSONS

For the purposes of the provisions of these Articles concerning a Director's interests in relation to the Company, the interest of a person who is for the purposes of the Companies Acts connected with a Director shall be (if known by the Director to be an interest of any such connected person) treated as the interest of the Director and, in relation to an alternate Director, the interest of his appointor shall be treated as the interest of the alternate Director in addition to an interest which the alternate Director otherwise has. This Article 109 applies to an alternate Director as if he were a Director.

110. SUSPENSION OR RELAXATION OF PROVISIONS CONCERNING DIRECTORS' INTERESTS

- 110.1 Subject to the Companies Acts and to any relevant requirements of (to the extent applicable) the AIM Rules and/or the London Stock Exchange, the Company may by ordinary resolution suspend, vary or relax any provision in these Articles concerning a Director's interests in relation to the Company, either generally or in respect of any particular matter, or ratify any contract, arrangement or other proposal not authorised by reason of a contravention of any such provision.
- 110.2 For the purposes of section 175 of the Act, the Directors may authorise any matter proposed to them in accordance with these Articles which would, if not so authorised, constitute or give rise to an infringement of duty by a Director under that section.
- 110.3 Authorisation of a matter under Article 110.2 shall be effective only if:
 - (A) the matter in question shall have been proposed by any person for consideration at a meeting of the Directors, in accordance with the Directors procedures, if any, for the time being relating to matters for consideration by the Directors or in such other manner as the Directors may approve;
 - (B) any requirement as to the quorum at the meeting of the Directors at which the matter is considered is met without counting the Director in question and any other interested Director (together the "Interested Directors"); and
 - (C) the matter was agreed to without the Interested Directors voting or would have been agreed to if the votes of the Interested Directors had not been counted.
- 110.4 Any authorisation of a matter pursuant to Article 110.2 shall extend to any actual or potential conflict of interest which may reasonably be expected to arise out of the matter so authorised.
- 110.5 Any authorisation of a matter pursuant to Article 110.2 shall be subject to such conditions or limitations as the Directors may specify, whether at the time such authorisation is given or subsequently, and may be terminated or varied by the Directors at any time. A Director shall comply with any obligations imposed on him by the Directors pursuant to any such authorisation.

110.6 A Director shall not, by reason of his office or the fiduciary relationship thereby established, be accountable to the Company for any remuneration or other benefit which derives from any matter authorised by the Directors under Article 110.2 and any contract, transaction or arrangement relating thereto shall not be liable to be avoided on the grounds of any such remuneration or other benefit or on the ground of the Director having any interest as referred to in the said section 175.

110.7 A Director shall be under no duty to the Company with respect to any information which he obtains or has obtained otherwise than as a director or officer or employee of the Company and in respect of which he owes a duty of confidentiality to another person. However, to the extent that his connection with that other person conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company, this Article 110 applies only if the existence of that connection has been authorised by the Directors under Article 110.2. In particular, the Director shall not be in breach of the general duties he owes to the Company by virtue of sections 171 to 177 of the Act because he fails:

- (A) to disclose any such information to the Directors or to any Director or other officer or employee of the Company; and/or
- (B) to use any such information in performing his duties as a Director or officer or employee of the Company.

110.8 Where the existence of a Director's connection with another person has been authorised by the Directors under Article 110.2 and his connection with that person conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Company, the Director shall not be in breach of the general duties he owes to the Company by virtue of sections 171 to 177 of the Act because he:

- (A) absents himself from meetings of the Directors or any committee thereof at which any matter relating to the conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest will or may be discussed or from the discussion of any such matter at a meeting or otherwise; and/or
- (B) makes arrangements not to receive documents and information relating to any matter which gives rise to the conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest sent or supplied by the Company and/or for such documents and information to be received and read by a professional adviser, for so long as he reasonably believes such conflict of interest (or possible conflict of interest) subsists.

110.9 The provisions of Articles 110.7 and 110.8 are without prejudice to any equitable principle or rule of law which may excuse the Director from:

- (A) disclosing information, in circumstances where disclosure would otherwise be required under these Articles or otherwise; or
- (B) attending meetings or discussions or receiving documents and information as referred to in Article 110.8, in circumstances where such attendance or receiving such documents and information would otherwise be required under these Articles.

110.10 For the purposes of this Article 110, a conflict of interest includes a conflict of interest and duty and a conflict of duties.

SECRETARY

111. SECRETARY

- 111.1 Subject to the Companies Acts, the Board shall appoint a Secretary and may appoint one or more persons to be a joint, deputy or assistant Secretary on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit. The Board may remove a person appointed pursuant to this Article 111 from office and appoint another or others in his place. Any such removal shall be without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service.
- 111.2 Any provision of the Companies Acts or of these Articles requiring or authorising a thing to be done by or to a Director and the Secretary shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting both as a Director and as, or in the place of, the Secretary.

SEALS AND DOCUMENT AUTHENTICATION

112. SAFE CUSTODY

The board shall provide for the safe custody of every Seal.

113. APPLICATION OF SEAL

- 113.1 Any Seal may be used only by the authority of the Board or of a committee of the Board. The Board may decide who is to sign an instrument to which the Seal is to be affixed either generally or in relation to a particular instrument or type of instrument. The Board may decide, either generally or in a particular case, that a signature may be dispensed with or affixed by mechanical means. Unless otherwise decided by the Board:
- (A) share certificates and certificates issued in respect of debentures or other securities to which the Seal is affixed (subject to the provisions of the relevant instrument) need not be signed or, if signed, a signature may be applied by mechanical or other means or may be printed; and
 - (B) every other instrument to which the Seal is affixed shall be signed, in the presence of a witness, by at least one of: (i) a Director; (ii) the Secretary; or (iii) a person duly authorised by the Board.
- 113.2 Every share certificate or share warrant shall be issued either under the Seal (which may be affixed to it or printed on by mechanical or other means) or in such other manner as the Board, having regard to the terms of issue, the Companies Acts and (to the extent applicable) the AIM Rules and/or the London Stock Exchange, may authorise. All references in these Articles to the Seal shall be construed in relation to share certificates and share warrants accordingly.

114. OFFICIAL SEAL FOR USE ABROAD

The Company may exercise the powers conferred by the Statutes with regard to having an official seal for use abroad, and those powers shall be vested in the Board.

115. DIRECTORS OR SECRETARY TO AUTHENTICATE OR CERTIFY

A Director or the Secretary or any person appointed by the Board for the purpose may authenticate any documents affecting the constitution of the Company (including these Articles) and any resolutions passed by the Company or holders of a class of shares or the Board or any committee of the Board and any books, records, documents and accounts relating to the business of the Company, and may certify copies of or extracts from any such items as true copies or extracts.

DIVIDENDS AND OTHER PAYMENTS

116. DECLARATION

Subject to the Companies Acts and these Articles, the Company may by ordinary resolution declare a dividend to be paid to members according to their respective rights and interests in the profits of the Company. No such dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board.

117. INTERIM DIVIDENDS

Subject to the Companies Acts, the Board may pay such interim dividends (including any dividend payable at a fixed rate) as appears to the Board to be justified by the profits of the Company available for distribution. If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes, the Board may pay such interim dividends on shares which rank after shares conferring preferential rights with regard to dividend as well as on shares conferring preferential rights, unless at the time of payment any preferential dividend is in arrears. If the Board acts in good faith, it shall not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferential rights for any loss that they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on any shares ranking after those with preferential rights.

118. ENTITLEMENT TO DIVIDENDS

118.1 Except as otherwise provided by these Articles or the rights attached to, or the terms of issue of shares:

- (A) a dividend shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid up (otherwise than in advance of calls) on the nominal value of the shares on which the dividend is paid; and
- (B) dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid up on the nominal value of the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid, but if any share is issued on terms that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date, it shall rank for dividend accordingly.

118.2 Except as otherwise provided by these Articles or the rights attached to shares:

- (A) a dividend may be paid in any currency or currencies decided by the Board; and
- (B) the Company may agree with a member that any dividend declared or which may become due in one currency will be paid to the member in another currency, for which purpose the Board may use any relevant exchange rate current at any time as the Board may select for the purpose of calculating the amount of any member's entitlement to the dividend.

119. PAYMENT METHODS

119.1 The Company may pay a dividend, interest or other amount payable in respect of a share in cash or by cheque, warrant or money order or by a bank or other funds transfer system or (in respect of any uncertificated share) through the Uncertificated System in accordance with any authority given to the Company to do so (whether in writing, through the Uncertificated System or otherwise) by or on behalf of the member in a form or in a manner satisfactory to the Board. Any joint holder or other person jointly entitled to a share may give an effective receipt for a dividend, interest or other amount paid in respect of such share.

- 119.2 The Company may send a cheque, warrant or money order by post:
- (A) in the case of a sole holder, to his registered address;
 - (B) in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of the person whose name stands first in the Register of Members;
 - (C) in the case of a person or persons entitled by transmission to a share, as if it were a notice given in accordance with these Articles; or
 - (D) in any case, to a person and address that the person or persons entitled to the payment may in writing direct.
- 119.3 Every cheque, warrant or money order shall be sent at the risk of the person or persons entitled to the payment and shall be made payable to the order of the person or persons entitled or to such other person or persons as the person or persons entitled may in writing direct. The payment of the cheque, warrant or money order shall be a good discharge to the Company. If payment is made by a bank or other funds transfer or through the Uncertificated System, the Company shall not be responsible for amounts lost or delayed in the course of transfer. If payment is made by or on behalf of the Company through the Uncertificated System:
- (A) the Company shall not be responsible for any default in accounting for such payment to the member or other person entitled to such payment by a bank or other financial intermediary of which the member or other person is a customer for settlement purposes in connection with the Uncertificated System; and
 - (B) the making of such payment in accordance with any relevant authority referred to in Article 119.1 above shall be a good discharge to the Company.
- 119.4 The Board may:
- (A) lay down procedures for making any payments in respect of uncertificated shares through the Uncertificated System;
 - (B) allow any holder of uncertificated shares to elect to receive or not to receive any such payment through the Uncertificated System; and
 - (C) lay down procedures to enable any such holder to make, vary or revoke any such election.
- 119.5 The Board may withhold payment of a dividend (or part of a dividend) payable to a person entitled by transmission to a share until he has provided any evidence of his entitlement that the Board may reasonably require.

120. DEDUCTIONS

The Board may deduct from any dividend or other amounts payable to any person in respect of a share all such sums as may be due from him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to any shares.

121. INTEREST

No dividend or other money payable in respect of a share shall bear interest against the Company, unless otherwise provided by the rights attached to the share.

122. UNCLAIMED DIVIDENDS

All unclaimed dividends or other monies payable by the Company in respect of a share may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Board for the benefit of the Company until claimed. The payment of any unclaimed dividend or other amount payable by the Company in respect of a share into a separate account shall not constitute the Company a trustee in respect of it. Any dividend unclaimed after a period of twelve (12) years from the date the dividend became due for payment shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Company.

123. UNCASHED DIVIDENDS

If, in respect of a dividend or other amount payable in respect of a share:

- (A) a cheque, warrant or money order is returned undelivered or left uncashed; or
- (B) a transfer made by or through a bank transfer system and/or other funds transfer system(s) (including, without limitation, the Uncertificated System in relation to any uncertificated shares) fails or is not accepted, on two consecutive occasions, or one occasion and reasonable enquiries have failed to establish another address or account of the person entitled to the payment, the Company shall not be obliged to send or transfer a dividend or other amount payable in respect of such share to such person until he notifies the Company of an address or account to be used for such purpose.

124. DIVIDENDS IN KIND

A general meeting declaring a dividend may, upon the recommendation of the Board, direct that it shall be satisfied wholly or partly by the distribution of assets (including, without limitation, paid up shares or securities of any other body corporate). Where any difficulty arises concerning such distribution, the Board may settle it as it thinks fit. In particular (without limitation), the Board may:

- (A) issue fractional certificates or ignore fractions;
- (B) fix the value for distribution of any assets, and may determine that cash shall be paid to any member on the footing of the value so fixed in order to adjust the rights of members; and
- (C) vest any assets in trustees on trust for the persons entitled to the dividend.

125. SCRIP DIVIDENDS

- 125.1 The Board may, with the prior authority of an ordinary resolution and subject to such terms and conditions as the Board may determine, offer any holders of Ordinary Shares the right to elect to receive Ordinary Shares, credited as fully paid, instead of cash in respect of the whole (or some part, to be determined by the Board) of any dividend specified by the ordinary resolution, subject to the Companies Acts and to the provisions of this Article 125.

- 125.2 An ordinary resolution under Article 125.1 may specify a particular dividend (whether or not declared), or may specify all or any dividends declared within a specified period, but such period may not end later than the beginning of the fifth annual general meeting next following the date of the meeting at which the ordinary resolution is passed.
- 125.3 The entitlement of each holder of Ordinary Shares to new Ordinary Shares shall be such that the relevant value of the entitlement shall be the cash amount, disregarding any tax credit, (or as near to such cash amount as the Board considers appropriate) that such holder would have received by way of dividend. For this purpose, "relevant value" shall be calculated by reference to the average of the middle market quotations for the Ordinary Shares on the London Stock Exchange as derived from the London Stock Exchange Daily Official List for the day on which the Ordinary Shares are first quoted "ex" the relevant dividend and the four subsequent dealing days, or in such other manner as may be determined by or in accordance with the ordinary resolution. A written confirmation or report by the Auditors as to the amount of the relevant value in respect of any dividend shall be conclusive evidence of that amount.
- 125.4 The Board may make any provision it considers appropriate in relation to an allotment made or to be made pursuant to this Article 125 (whether before or after the passing of the ordinary resolution referred to in Article 125.1), including (without limitation):
- (A) the giving of notice to holders of the right of election offered to them;
 - (B) the provision of forms of election and/or a facility and a procedure for making elections through the Uncertificated System (whether in respect of a particular dividend or dividends generally);
 - (C) determination of the procedure for making and revoking elections;
 - (D) the place at which, and the latest time by which, forms of election and other relevant documents must be lodged in order to be effective;
 - (E) the disregarding or rounding up or down or carrying forward of fractional entitlements, in whole or in part, or the accrual of the benefit of fractional entitlements to the Company (rather than to the holders concerned); and
 - (F) the exclusion from any offer of any holders of Ordinary Shares where the Board considers that the making of the offer to them would or might involve the contravention of the laws of any territory or that for any other reason the offer should not be made to them.
- 125.5 The dividend (or that part of the dividend in respect of which a right of election has been offered) shall not be payable on Ordinary Shares in respect of which a valid election has been made ("the elected Ordinary Shares"). Instead additional Ordinary Shares shall be allotted to the holders of the elected Ordinary Shares on the basis of allotment determined under this Article 125. For such purpose, the Board may capitalise out of any amount for the time being standing to the credit of any reserve or fund of the Company (including any share premium account, capital redemption reserve and profit and loss account), whether or not available for distribution, a sum equal to the aggregate nominal amount of the additional Ordinary Shares to be allotted on that basis and apply it in paying up in full the appropriate number of unissued Ordinary Shares for allotment and distribution to the holders of the elected Ordinary Shares on that basis.
- 125.6 The additional Ordinary Shares when allotted shall rank pari passu in all respects with the fully paid Ordinary Shares in issue on the record date for the dividend in respect of which the right of election has been offered, except that they will not rank for any dividend or other entitlement which has been declared, paid or made by reference to such record date.

125.7 The Board may:

- (A) do all acts and things which it considers necessary or expedient to give effect to any such capitalisation, and may authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the members interested into an agreement with the Company providing for such capitalisation and incidental matters and any agreement so made shall be binding on all concerned;
- (B) establish and vary a procedure for election mandates in respect of future rights of election and determine that every duly effected election in respect of any Ordinary Shares shall be binding on every successor in title to the holder of such shares; and
- (C) terminate, suspend or amend any offer of the right to elect to receive Ordinary Shares in lieu of any cash dividend at any time and generally implement any scheme in relation to any such offer on such terms and conditions as the Board may from time to time determine and take such other action as the Board may deem necessary or desirable from time to time in respect of any such scheme.

126. RESERVES

The Board may set aside out of the profits of the Company and carry to reserve such sums as it thinks fit. Such sums standing to reserve may be applied, at the Board's discretion, for any purpose to which the profits of the Company may properly be applied and, pending such application, may either be employed in the business of the Company or be invested in such investments as the Board thinks fit. The Board may divide the reserve into such special funds as it thinks fit and may consolidate into one fund any special funds or any parts of any special funds into which the reserve may have been divided as it thinks fit. Any sum which the Board may carry to reserve out of the unrealised profits of the Company shall not be mixed with any reserve to which profits available for distribution have been carried. The Board may also carry forward any profits without placing them to reserve.

127. CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS AND RESERVES

The Board may, with the authority of an ordinary resolution:

- (A) subject to this Article 127, resolve to capitalise any undivided profits of the Company not required for paying any preferential dividend (whether or not available for distribution) or any sum standing to the credit of any reserve or fund of the Company (including any share premium account, capital redemption reserve and profit and loss account), whether or not available for distribution;
- (B) appropriate the sum resolved to be capitalised to the holders of Ordinary Shares in proportion to the nominal amounts of the shares (whether or not fully paid) held by them respectively which would entitle them to participate in a distribution of that sum if the shares were fully paid and the sum were then distributable and were distributed by way of dividend and apply such sum on their behalf either in or towards paying up the amounts, if any, unpaid on any shares held by them respectively, or in paying up in full unissued shares or debentures of the Company of a nominal amount equal to that sum, and allot the shares or debentures credited as fully paid to those holders of Ordinary Shares or as the Board may direct, in those proportions, or partly in one way and partly in the other, but so that the share premium account, the capital redemption reserve and any profits or reserves which are not available for distribution may, for the purposes of this Article 127, only be applied in paying up unissued shares to be allotted to members credited as fully paid;

- (C) resolve that any shares so allotted to any member in respect of a holding by him of any partly paid shares shall, so long as such shares remain partly paid, rank for dividend only to the extent that such partly paid shares rank for dividend;
- (D) make such provision by the issue of fractional certificates (or by ignoring fractions or by accruing the benefit of fractions to the Company rather than to the holders concerned) or by payment in cash or otherwise as the Board may determine in the case of shares or debentures becoming distributable in fractions;
- (E) authorise any person to enter on behalf of all the members concerned into an agreement with the Company providing for either:
 - (1) the allotment to them respectively, credited as fully paid, of any further shares or debentures to which they are entitled upon such capitalisation; or
 - (2) the payment up by the Company on behalf of such members by the application thereto of their respective proportions of the reserves or profits resolved to be capitalised, of the amounts or any part of the amounts remaining unpaid on their existing shares, and so that any such agreement shall be binding on all such members; and

- (F) generally do all acts and things required to give effect to such resolution.

RECORD DATES

128. BOARD TO FIX DATE

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles but without prejudice to the rights attached to any shares and subject to the Companies Acts, the Board may fix any date ("the record date") as the date at the close of business (or such other time as the Board may decide) on which persons registered as the holders of shares or other securities shall be entitled to receipt of any dividend, distribution, interest, allotment, issue, notice, information, document or circular. A record date may be on or at any time before any date on which such item is paid, made, given or served or (in the case of any dividend, distribution, interest, allotment or issue) after any date on which such item is recommended, resolved, declared or announced.

ACCOUNTS

129. ACCESS TO ACCOUNTING RECORDS

No member (other than an officer of the Company) shall have any right of inspecting any accounting record or other document of the Company unless he is authorised to do so by statute, by order of the court, by the Board or by an ordinary resolution.

130. DISTRIBUTION OF ANNUAL ACCOUNTS

- 130.1 In respect of each financial year, a copy of the Company's annual accounts, Directors' report and Auditors' report on those accounts shall be sent by post or delivered or given, in electronic form to an address for the time being notified to the Company by the member (or, where the member is a company, deemed to have been so notified to the Company by a provision of the Act), to every member, every holder of debentures, and every other person who is entitled to receive notices of general meetings, in each case not less than 21 clear days before the date of the meeting at which copies of those documents are to be laid in accordance with the Companies Acts. This Article 130 does not require copies of such documents to be sent or delivered or given to a person who is not entitled to receive notices of general meetings and of whose address the Company is unaware or to more than one of the joint holders of shares or debentures.

- 130.2 Where permitted in accordance with the Companies Acts, the Company may send a summary financial statement to any member instead of or in addition to the documents referred to in Article 130.1.

NOTICES

131. FORMS OF NOTICES

Any notice to be given to or by any person pursuant to these Articles (other than a notice calling a meeting of the Directors) shall be in writing or shall be given in electronic form to an address for the time being notified (or deemed notified by a provision of the Act) for that purpose to the person giving the notice, except that a notice to the holder of any uncertificated shares or given in respect of any such shares may be given electronically through the Uncertificated System (if permitted by, and subject to, the facilities and requirements of the Uncertificated System and subject to compliance with any relevant requirements of the AIM Rules and/or the London Stock Exchange, to the extent applicable).

132. SERVICE ON MEMBERS

- 132.1 A notice or other document may be given by the Company to any member either

- (A) personally; or
- (B) by sending it by post (in a pre-paid envelope) addressed to such member at his registered address (any such notice or document to be given to a member registered on an overseas branch register may be posted either from the United Kingdom or in the territory in which such branch register is maintained); or
- (C) by giving it in electronic form to a person who has agreed (generally or specifically) that the notice, document or information may be sent or supplied in that form (and has not revoked that agreement); or
- (D) (in the case of a notice to a member holding uncertificated shares) by transmitting the notice through the Uncertificated System; or
- (E) subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts, by making it available on a website, provided that the requirements in Article 132.2 are satisfied; or
- (F) by any other means authorised in writing by the member concerned.

- 132.2 The requirements referred to in Article 132.1(E) are that:

- (A) the member has agreed (generally or specifically) that the notice, document or information may be sent or supplied to him by being made available on a website (and has not revoked that agreement), or the member has been asked by the Company to agree that the Company may send or supply notices, documents and information generally, or the notice, document or information in question, to him by making it available on a website and the Company has not received a response within the period of 28 days beginning on the date on which the Company's request was sent and the member is therefore taken to have so agreed (and has not revoked that agreement);

- (B) the member is sent a notification of the presence of the notice, document or information on a website, the address of that website, the place on that website where it may be accessed, and how it may be accessed ("notification of availability");
- (C) in the case of a notice of meeting, the notification of availability states that it concerns a notice of a Company meeting, specifies the place, time and date of the meeting, and states whether it will be an annual general meeting; and
- (D) the notice, document or information continues to be published on that website, in the case of a notice of meeting, throughout the period beginning with the date of the notification of availability and ending with the conclusion of the meeting and in all other cases throughout the period specified by any applicable provision of the Companies Acts, or, if no such period is specified, throughout the period of twenty-eight (28) days beginning with the date on which the notification of availability is sent to the member, save that if the notice, document or information is made available for part only of that period then failure to make it available throughout that period shall be disregarded where such failure is wholly attributable to circumstances which it would not be reasonable to have expected the Company to prevent or avoid.

132.3 In the case of joint holders of a share, all notices and documents shall be given to the person whose name stands first in the Register of Members in respect of that share and the agreement of the first named holder that notices, documents and information may be given, sent or supplied in electronic form or by being made available on a website shall be binding on all the joint holders. Notice so given shall be sufficient notice to all the joint holders.

132.4 If a member (or, in the case of joint holders, the person first named in the Register of Members) has a registered address outside the United Kingdom but has given to the Company an address in the United Kingdom at which notices may be given to him or has an address which is registered on an overseas branch register or has an address to which notices may be sent in electronic form, he shall be entitled to have notices or documents given to him at that address. Otherwise no such member (including any such joint holder) shall be entitled to receive any notice or other document from the Company.

132.5 Any notice or other document to be given to a member may be given by reference to the Register of Members as it stands at any time within the period of twenty-one (21) days before the day that the notice is given or (where and as applicable) within any other period permitted by, or in accordance with the requirements of, (to the extent applicable) the AIM Rules and/or the London Stock Exchange, the Companies Acts and the Uncertificated Securities Regulations. No change in the Register of Members after that time shall invalidate the giving of such notice or document or require the Company to give such item to any other person.

132.6 If on three (3) consecutive occasions notices or other documents have been sent through the post to any member at his registered address or his address for the service of notices but have been returned undelivered, such member shall not be entitled to receive notices or other documents from the Company until he shall have communicated with the Company and supplied in writing a new registered address or address within the United Kingdom for the service of notices.

132.7 If on three (3) consecutive occasions notices or other documents have been sent in electronic form to an address for the time being notified (or deemed notified by a provision of the Act) to the Company by the member and the Company becomes aware that there has been a failure of transmission, the Company shall revert to giving notices and other documents to the member by post or by any other means authorised in writing by the member concerned. Such member shall not be entitled to receive notices or other documents from the Company in electronic form until he shall have communicated with the Company and supplied in writing a new address to which notices or other documents may be sent in electronic form.

132.8 Where a document is required under these Articles to be signed by a member or any other person, if the document is in electronic form, then in order to be valid the document must either:

- (A) incorporate the electronic signature, or personal identification details (which may be details previously allocated by the Company), of that member or other person, in such form as the directors may approve; or
- (B) be accompanied by such other evidence as the directors may require in order to be satisfied that the document is genuine.

The Company may designate mechanisms for validating any such document and a document not validated by the use of any such mechanisms shall be deemed as having not been received by the Company. In the case of any document or information relating to a meeting, an instrument of proxy or invitation to appoint a proxy, any validation requirements shall be specified in the relevant notice of meeting.

133. NOTICES BY ADVERTISEMENT

133.1 If by reason of the suspension or curtailment of postal services in the United Kingdom the Company is unable effectively to convene a general meeting by notices sent through the post, any such meeting may be convened by notice advertised once in at least one national newspaper published in the country in which the Company's Registered Office is located. The Company shall send a copy of the notice to members by post if at least seven (7) clear days before the meeting the posting of notices to addresses throughout the United Kingdom again becomes practicable.

133.2 Any notice to be given by the Company to the members or any of them, and not otherwise provided for by these Articles, shall be sufficiently given if given by advertisement in at least one national newspaper published in the country in which the Company's Registered Office is located.

133.3 Any notice given by advertisement in accordance with this Article 133 shall be deemed to have been served at noon on the day on which the advertisement first appears.

134. EVIDENCE OF GIVING NOTICE

134.1 Any notice, document or information given, sent or supplied by the Company to a member at his registered address or address for giving notice in the United Kingdom shall be, if sent by post, deemed to have been given at the time 24 hours after posting if pre-paid as first class post and at the time 48 hours after posting if pre-paid as second class post. In proving that notice has been given it shall be sufficient to prove that the envelope containing the notice or document was properly addressed, pre-paid and posted.

134.2 Any notice, document or information given, sent or supplied by the Company to a member at an address to which notices may be sent using electronic communications shall be, if sent by electronic communications, deemed to have been given at the expiration of 48 hours after the time it was sent. Proof that a notice contained in an electronic communication was sent in accordance with guidance issued by the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators shall be conclusive evidence that the notice was given.

- 134.3 Any notice, document or information given, sent or supplied by the Company to the members or any of them by making it available on a website, shall be deemed to have been received on the date on which notification of availability on the website is deemed to have been received in accordance with this Article 134 or, if later, the date on which it is first made available on the website.
- 134.4 A notice, document or information not sent by post but:
- (A) left at a registered address or address for giving notice in the United Kingdom shall be deemed to be given on the day it is left; and
 - (B) given through the Uncertificated System shall be deemed to be given when the Company or any System-Participant or other relevant person acting on the Company's behalf sends the relevant Issuer-Instruction or other relevant message in respect of such notice.
- 134.5 A member present either in person or by proxy, or in the case of a corporate member by a duly authorised representative, at any meeting of the Company or of the holders of any class of shares shall be deemed to have received due notice of such meeting and, where required, of the purposes for which it was called.

135. NOTICE BINDING ON TRANSFEREES

A person who becomes entitled to a share by transfer, transmission or otherwise shall be bound by any notice in respect of that share (other than a notice given by the Company under section 793 of the Act) which, before his name is entered in the Register of Members, has been given to the person from whom he derives his title.

136. NOTICE TO PERSONS ENTITLED BY TRANSMISSION

A notice or other document may be given by the Company to a person entitled by transmission to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member or otherwise by sending or delivering it in any manner authorised by these Articles for the giving of notice to a member, addressed to that person by name, or by the title of representative of the deceased or trustee of the bankrupt or by any similar or equivalent description, at the address, if any, in the United Kingdom or to the address to which notices may be sent in electronic form supplied (or deemed supplied by a provision of the Act) for that purpose by the person claiming to be so entitled. Until such an address has been supplied, a notice or other document may be given in any manner in which it might have been given if the event giving rise to the transmission had not occurred. The giving of notice in accordance with this Article 136 shall be sufficient notice to all other persons interested in the share.

DOCUMENT DESTRUCTION

137. DOCUMENT DESTRUCTION

- 137.1 The Company may destroy:
- (A) any share certificate or other evidence of title to shares which has been cancelled at any time after one year from the date of such cancellation;

- (B) any mandate for the payment of dividends or other amounts or any variation or cancellation of such mandate or any other instruction concerning the payment of monies or any notification of change of name or address at any time after two years from the date such mandate, variation, cancellation or notification was recorded by the Company;
- (C) any instrument or other evidence of transfer of shares or renunciation of an allotment of shares which has been registered at any time after six (6) years from the date of registration;
- (D) any proxy appointment which has been used for the purposes of a poll, at any time after a period of one year has elapsed from the date of use;
